Governor Roosevelt Asked To Remove New York Mayor

CHARGES ARE FILED TODAY IN ALBANY

City Affairs Committee in New York City Present Specific Accusations

GOVERNOR IS SILENT

Refuses to Discuss Case in View of Fact He May Be Called on As Judge

ALBANY, N. Y., March 18.—(UP)—Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt today made public the charges against Mayor James J. Walker of New York City, filed by the city affairs committee, which requested the mayor's removal from office.

"He has failed properly to administer the government of the city in the interests of the people."

"He has ignored conditions of inefficiency and corruption, and if under public pressure he has initiated investigations he has allowed such investigation to lapse without report or result."

"He has appointed unworthy men to public office, and kept in office unworthy men subject by law to his removal. His conduct of the office of mayor since he took office on January 1, 1930, has been incompetent, inefficient and futile with the result that the local machinery of government has failed to function properly and the administration of the city has been brought into disrepute."

The charges continue by saying: Without limiting the generality of the foregoing charges, our petitioners specify thereunder the following:

(A) The mayor has been guilty of misfeasance of office in failing to perform the duty imposed upon him by section 115 of the city charter which provides "that it shall be the duty of the mayor to keep himself informed of the conduct of the several departments (of the city government) and to be vigilant and active in causing the ordinances of the city and the laws of the state to be executed and enforced, in order to enable him to perform these duties."

"His failure to perform this central duty of his office has resulted in a breakdown in the administration of the affairs of the city, a collapse of the right standards of public life and a release upon the citizens of the baleful forces of evil"

CHAIN STORES VICTORIOUS IN LEGISLATURE

Revenue, Taxation Committee Tables Bills Aimed at Stores

SACRAMENTO, March 18.—(UP)—Chain stores will not be subject to special taxation in California.

This was decided in the state legislature today, when the assembly revenue and taxation committee reported it had tabled two bills by Willard E. Badham, Los Angeles.

Under these measures, a $50 tax would be levied on chain stores with more than five branches, gross receipts of such stores exceeding $400,000 taxes at 1-20th of one per cent or if $1,000,000 or more, at one per cent.

Reapportionment, the gasoline price investigation, building and loan law amendments and administration bills were the major issues on the files of the legislature today.

A hopeless split between the two houses over the reapportionment question loomed, with the introduction of a new compromise bill by Senator J. W. McKinley of Los Angeles. It is entirely different from the compromise bill now before the assembly, by Edward Craig, Brea.

The Craig bill would give Southern California only 10 congressmen. McKinley's bill would give it 11, the additional member being taken away from San Francisco and San Mateo counties.

The legislature today was no nearer a solution of the building and loan problem as amendments to the "ideal law" continued to pile up.

An extended session of the senate building and loan committee last night failed to result in any definite action on the bill sponsored by H. L. Carnahan, state building and loan commissioner.

Prison Physician Believes Slayer Of Banker Insane

SAN QUENTIN PRISON, March 18.—(UP)—Frank D. Keaton, who shot and killed Motley H. Flint in a Los Angeles courtroom, may escape the gallows because of insanity, Warden James B. Holohan indicated today.

The warden was in possession of a report from Dr. L. L. Stanley, prison physician, attesting to apparent symptoms of insanity and recommending an investigation.

Allentiss will probably be called. From an observation of Keaton covering the past several weeks, Dr. Stanley said the man was constantly visited by strange dreams and hallucinations and interims of mental vacuity.

"Mm-mm-ph," repeated Strange.

"Must be a Russian," said the other bandit. "Come on, let's go."

"Ha, ha, a Russian," laughed Strange to himself as he removed a gold wrist watch and $80 in bills from his mouth.

Sixteen of 2000 Prisoners Join in Riot and Then Battle Guards, Police

FOUR PERSONS SHOT

Rifles, Pistols, Shotguns and Tear Gas Bombs Used to Quell Rioting

JOLIET, Ill., March 18.—(UP)—

Two hundred convicts in Stateville prison broke away from guards this afternoon, set fire to their chair and tool shops, bakery, kitchen and main dining room of the penitentiary before they were subdued by guards and state police who charged them with rifles, pistols and tear gas bombs.

By 3:30 p. m. virtually the whole prison with the exception of the cell houses was afire and appeared doomed.

Sixteen hundred of the 2000 convicts in the model prison joined in the riot. For two hours they fought guards, militia and state highway police before they were driven back into their cells at the points of rifles.

Three convicts were shot in the rush on the dining room and one guard was wounded.

The white Statesville structure was almost obscured in the clouds of smoke that billowed from the burning buildings within the walls.

Sounds of rifle fire came from the smoke. Guards posted around the walls held off the crowds of spectators who rushed to the prison with the Joliet rioters.

"Hell is breaking loose in there," one spectator reported.

The riot started in the chair factory. Two hundred convicts broke away and set the big building afire. From there they ran screaming to the tool shop and set it afire. Guards, mobilized after the recent series of outbreaks, were powerless to stop the wild convicts.

The bakery and kitchen were the next objects of the crazed prisoners. These, too, were set afire. From there they converged on the main dining hall, one of the largest buildings in the prison.

As the prisoners scurried around inside, wrecking furniture and building fires in all corners, Deputy Warden Frank Kness, billiard 25 guards and state policemen.

With pistols and rifles cracking, the 25 charged the dining hall and its seething mass of frenzied convicts.

Three convicts fell under the fire. Others, choking from tear gas, quieted down under the butts of rifles and pistols in the hands of the attackers.

H. B. Doctor Faces Charge Of Violating Poison Act

DR. E. E. EWING ARRAIGNED IN JUSTICE COURT

While Dr. J. L. Beebe, prominent Anaheim physician, was being given a hearing in Justice Kenneth Morrison's court yesterday on charges of violation of the state poison act on writing morphine prescriptions, Dr. Edgar E. Ewing, prominent Huntington Beach doctor, was arrested on a similar charge, it was revealed today.

Dr. Ewing was brought into Justice court, where he was arraigned and allowed to go home on his own recognizance. His preliminary examination was set for March 25, at 9 a. m.

Five counts were lodged against Dr. Ewing in a complaint filed in the Justice court, alleging that he violated section No. 6 of the state poison act in prescribing morphine to a drug addict, one D. O. Stewart, of Huntington Beach, not in good faith. This was a similar charge to the one against Dr. Beebe. The dates of the alleged crimes were listed as Nov. 23, 1930, Dec. 23, 1930, Jan. 30, 1931, Feb. 20, 1931, and March 15, 1931.

For the purpose of allowing the district attorney's office to file a new complaint, Justice Morrison yesterday afternoon dismissed the case of Dr. Beebe, after listening to state testimony throughout most of the day.

Justice Morrison held that the state was charging Dr. Beebe with violation of a section (No. 6) of the state poison act which did not fit the case and suggested filing complaint charging violation of section No. 2 of the state act. The court holds that section No. 6 does not apply to physicians, but that section No. 2 does, and when the new complaint is filed it will

Thomas Carlton Marshall Called By Death Today

Thomas Carlton "Tex" Marshall, 24, a resident of Santa Ana for the past 11 years, passed away today at the Santa Ana Valley hospital. Mr. Marshall is survived by his mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Marshall, of this city; two sisters, Mrs. A. J. Volk, Anaheim, and Mrs. F. L. Berkland, Santa Ana; and one brother, John Marshall, of Los Angeles.

Mr. Marshall was born in Turkey, Tex., on Nov. 23, 1907. He was well known in this city, where he had lived since about 1920. Funeral services will be held next Friday at 10 a. m. from the Smith and Tutthill funeral chapel in Santa Ana. Interment will be in the Fairhaven cemetery.

ANAHEIM DRUGGIST GETS LIQUOR FINE

Archie M. Henry, one of the proprietors of the Henry Brothers Drug store at the corner of Center and Los Angeles streets in Anaheim, was fined $100 today on a charge of sale and possession of liquor by Judge Frank Tausch in the recorder's court.

Henry was arrested Monday night by Chief of Police James S. Bouldin, Sergeant Pifer, and Officers Sidebottom, Wilder, Stephenson and Rude and a state narcotics officer when a raid was conducted on the store. A quantity of alcohol was reported found in the store.

Henry pleaded not guilty yesterday when he was arraigned but changed his plea when he appeared in court this morning.

The complaint on which Henry was arrested was signed by F. C. Craig, a resident of Anaheim.

charge that Dr. Beebe wrote morphine prescriptions not in good faith.

It is understood that Dr. Beebe's defense will be that he was treating a patient for asthma and therefore had a right to prescribe morphine, a well known remedy for the ailment.

The case dismissed against Dr. Beebe was a charge of felony, while the new complaint will charge a misdemeanor and cannot be tried in the local justice court, but will be transferred to the justice court at Anaheim.

Justice Morrison said that the same procedure probably would be made in the Dr. Ewing case, but the charge cannot be dismissed before the evidence is heard.

as secretary, and was paying interest at the rate of $125 a month, at the present time the total indebtedness of the chamber today is but $2200.

A resolution expressing appreciation of the work done by W. C. Jerome, retiring president, was unanimously passed by the board, in which it was stated that Jerome had given unselfishly of his time and efforts in working for the interests of Santa Ana.

Jerome made a brief speech thanking the board for the courtesy, saying that he had never known any other home than Santa Ana and never expected to know another, and so naturally had the interests of the city at heart. He stated that while Santa Ana was the finest spot he knew of in which to live, there were certain conditions here that he hoped to see bettered. He deplored the strife created between various communities and individuals in the water problems of the county and hoped that no serious situation would result because of the conflicting theories of citizens on the problem.

Jerome introduced Rutledge, the newly elected president, and turned the chair over to him. Rutledge made a brief speech thanking the directors for the confidence expressed in him by electing him president, and said that he would do his best in carrying out the policies of the organization but was afraid he would have a hard job following in the footsteps of such an efficient president.

Previous to the election of officers, newly elected directors were presented to the board, who were: Ray Adkinson, W. D. Ranney, O. H. Barr, W. C. Jerome and Frank Was. Adkinson and Ranney are new members of the board, succeeding Walter Vandermast and Berle Northland.

Walter Vandermast made a short retiring speech in which he urged the board of directors to encourage interest in planting trees in the city.

Calvin Coolidge Says

By CALVIN COOLIDGE

Former President of the United States

NORTH AMPTON, Mass.

March 18.—Tax returns made in 1930 reveal incomes that are beyond human comprehension. The total is over one hundred and forty-one billions of dollars gross and thirty-five billions net. Four-fifths belongs to individuals and one-fifth to corporations. About four million individuals and five hundred thousand corporations make returns.

Thirty-six million persons gainfully employed make no returns. Their income would increase the total national gross income. These persons contributed as employees and consumers to the taxable income. More than one-half the net individual income is supplied by persons who have less than two thousand dollars annually. The people still own this country.

These figures show not only the stupendous earning power of the nation but they show conclusively the fallacy of thinking the government can be supported by taxing the rich. A national income as large as ours can only be secured by combined effort of all the people. The work and expenditure of all of us contribute to it. High taxes always keep the people poor, emphasize the cleavage between the classes and retard the distribution of wealth. The people at large have a great interest in economy in public expenditures.

"(B) He has failed to use the power, given him by section 95 of the city charter, to remove from office public officers, holding office by his appointment, who have been inefficient, or faithless to their duties or both."

Mayor Appears Not to Be Worried

PALM SPRINGS, Calif., March 18.—(UP)—Despite a petition to Governor Roosevelt from the city affairs committee in which the removal from office of Mayor James J. Walker was demanded, the mayor continued to enjoy his "health vacation" here unperturbed by the reports emanating from the city he left a little more than a week ago.

Questioned by newsmen this morning as he prepared to take his mud bath, Mayor Walker still remained adamant in his earlier decision to "have nothing to say." Walker was clad in gaudy pajamas when interviewed. He seemed to be vying with the inhabitants of this desert town in sartorial effects.

"I will make no reply to any statements issued in New York and having absolutely nothing to say with regard to the political situation there," he said.

He explained again that he had been ordered to Palm Springs by his physicians for a complete rest and that he intended to follow out instructions.

After his mud bath at 10 o'clock this morning he will cover himself with mineral oil and continue the development of a sun tan before having lunch.

The mayor has refused all social engagements. His activities are confined solely to taking chemical baths and generally improving his health.

CHAMBER DINNER PLANS DISCUSSED

Arrangements for the annual Home Products banquet to be held on March 30 were discussed at the meeting of the board of directors of the chamber of commerce held this morning in the chamber office. The securing of speakers for the occasion was deemed a matter of paramount importance and W. C. Jerome was designated to try to secure Dr. Hudson Ballard, professor from Occidental college, as one of the main speakers.

A communication from the Orange County Building Trades council was read, in which the board asked to adopt a resolution protesting the amount of commercial goods manufactured by prisoners in San Quentin. The letter stated that the competition from the goods sold from the prison was becoming a serious matter. The matter was referred to the legislative committee for research in the matter of finding out if there is any bills in the state legislature concerning the problem.

Members of the board were invited to attend a meeting of the Metropolitan Water district association to be held in Beaumont on March 22.

WILL RESURFACE PLACENTIA ROAD

Specifications for resurfacing Placentia avenue between Anaheim and Placentia were approved yesterday by the board of supervisors and bids were ordered advertised for the proposed improvement.

The road, which is 18 feet in width, is to be resurfaced with asphaltic concrete from Center street in Anaheim to the Santa Fe railroad crossing in Placentia, a distance of approximately two miles, according to Nat Neff, county superintendent of highways. The estimated cost of the improvement is $27,000.

Bids will be opened by the supervisors on April 7.

Defer Choice Of Chest Officers

Election of officers of the Santa Ana Community Chest was postponed yesterday afternoon at a meeting of the directors of that organization in the Y. M. C. The election will be held within the next week or 10 days, he stated. Directors went over a number of unpaid accounts at the session yesterday, and a special committee composed of Ed McFadden, Charles Cotant and Alex Brownridge, was appointed to assist in the collection of these accounts.

The measure was scheduled to be heard today by the committee on municipal corporations.

Other actions taken by the board at the afternoon session yesterday included acceptance of the improvement on the Laguna Beach road, which has been widened and straightened; granting a 15-day leave from the county to District Attorney Sam L. Collins, effective March 27, and acceptance of a right-of-way from the state division of highways of the old road at Sunset Beach, which was abandoned when a new right-of-way was selected in connection with the widening of the state highway.

An application for the position as janitor of the new court house annex, which it is stated will probably be ready for occupancy next month, was received from J. R. Goodwin, and referred to Supervisor Charles Chapman, head of the committee on court house buildings and grounds.

A recommendation for the appointment of Mabel Looney to the vacancy on the Buena Park library board caused by the resignation of Mrs. Ruth Grundy, was read to the board by its clerk, County Clerk J. M. Backs, and filed.

Mr. and Mrs. Baum declared

they enjoyed their stay here and except for business reasons would have stayed longer. They hope to return for permanent residence here, having made many friends.

They were most impressed with the beauty and charm of Santa Ana and its well lighted streets. They also spoke of the excellent schools. The Baums were accompanied on the trip by Mrs. Baum's cousin, Walter Krueger.

DEATHS

A WORD OF COMFORT

Sweet as they are, your deepest need today is not for sympathy and consolation from others to soothe your pain.

That which will bring salutory strength and comfort will come from within yourself. It will arise from the determination to exercise a new tenacity in the grip of your faith upon God's unflinching love and upon His sustaining strength, along with an increased steadfastness in your endeavor to respond to His guidance that what He has for you to do may be done courageously and well.

What you can not understand you can trust Him for, while you refuse to question an answer suffering should be involved in a life of service, and ask Him to show you how to make your sorrow the gateway to new strength and to greater usefulness.

TWO ARRESTED AFTER RAID IN CYPRESS AREA

District Attorney Sam Collins, together with officers of the district attorney's office and Constable Jesse Elliott, seized five cases of whiskey, a cutting plant with equipment worth $1500 and arrested two prisoners, in a raid conducted at Cypress late yesterday.

The prisoners are J. J. Seery, 47, a carpenter of Cypress, and Milton A. Robertson, 33, oil worker. Both were brought to Santa Ana and lodged in the county jail, charged with possession of liquor.

Officers scouted the premises at the Robertson home for almost an hour before they found the liquor for which they were searching. It was disclosed. The whiskey finally was found behind a fake wall after one of the officers found a nail with a string attached to it and pulled it. The movement released a trap door which led to a hidden compartment in the house, where the liquor was cached.

Another trap door was found in the floor of the house, leading to a compartment which hid labels for bottles, bottles and other equipment for the bottling of liquor, the officers reported.

Robertson served a term in the county jail on a liquor charge here recently.

ALIENISTS HEARD AT MCCOUN TRIAL

Expert alienists were present in superior court today as C. W. McCoun went on trial before a jury of seven women and five men in the court of Judge H. G. Ames.

Specialists include Dr. Edward H. Williams and Dr. Franklin Van Meter, of Los Angeles, who were appointed by the court to examine the defendant and advise concerning his condition. Dr. Williams was the alienist who testified during the Hickman "Fox" murder case in Los Angeles.

McCoun is defended by Attorney F. H. Lyon, of Fullerton. The prosecution is being handled by Assistant District Attorney S. B. Kaufman and Deputy District Attorney Leo Fris.

First witnesses in the case were Dr. Harry Zaiser, superintendent of the Orange County hospital, and Dr. R. A. Cushman, of Santa Ana.

WITMER IS TO SEEK ELECTION AS COUNCILMAN

Paul B. Witmer, 602 South McFadden street, announced today that he will be a candidate for election to the Santa Ana city council from the third ward. Witmer, who is owner and proprietor of the El Corral Service station at Third and Birch streets, and also owns a ranch within the city limits, is 36 years of age and a veteran of the World war, with service overseas in the 89th division. He is a graduate of the University of Missouri.

In making his announcement of candidacy, Witmer said today:

"My interest in the development of Santa Ana is selfish, insofar as I have a home and ranch within the city limits. But my broader and greater interest lies in my desire to see Santa Ana continue as an ideal home city with cultural and civic advantages.

"Should I be elected to the city council, it will be my aim to foster progress, and at the same time I will bear in mind that the burdens of the taxpayer are already to the limit of endurance. Tax reduction is a crying need. As I see the situation now, the only way that taxes can be reduced or prevented from going higher is to put on the brakes. This can be accomplished by abolishing waste, red tape, petty controversies and delays in the conduct of the city's business.

"The trade-at-home movement in all its departments, and will favor the employment of home labor and the use of materials purchased in Santa Ana whenever feasible.

"I shall always maintain an open-minded attitude regarding the suggestions and criticisms offered by the people of Santa Ana. For it is my belief that only in such manner can we develop the spirit of co-operation necessary to the city's growth; and it is also my opinion that only in such manner can the sound and unbiased judgment of a city councilman be formed."

Voice Recorded By Device Seen At Local Store

Santa Anans today evinced interest in a recording machine that is at the Foster-Barker Music store, 309 West Fourth. The record may be played indefinitely without any change in the qualities of the reproduction, it is claimed. The machine will be available in Santa Ana for 10 days.

These records can be used to send personal messages to relatives or friends or for practice use by musicians, singers, elocutionists, teachers, attorneys, glee clubs, and orchestras.

FAREWELL FOR PLAYERS GIVEN BY ORCHESTRA

BY RUTH ANDREWS

The Orange County Philharmonic orchestra gave a farewell party to two of its members last night, at the Santa Ana Conservatory of Music, 806 North Main street, after the regular weekly rehearsal of the organization. The entire evening was spent in polishing up the "Sourcerer's Apprentice," one of the most difficult numbers to be played by the orchestra on March 31 at the Santa Ana High school auditorium.

At about 9:45 p. m. George Evans, first violin and chairman of the orchestra personnel, announced that there were some refreshments to be served. While Edward Burns presented Dr. E. D. Kilbourne and his family, as well as Miss Georgia Belle Walton. They will sail on March 21 to make their residences in Honolulu. Dr. Kilbourne has been a member of the orchestra, playing cello, ever since he made his residence in Santa Ana. Miss Walton, violinist of merit, has been a member of the orchestra since the founding of the Santa Ana Symphony in 1924. She was a student of Edward Bear, well known violin teacher and concertmaster of the Symphony orchestra.

During the reception D. C. Clanton spoke briefly, regretting the loss of the two members, and thanking them for their splendid co-operation in building up the organization. Dr. Kilbourne responded, praising Clanton's work and the orchestra, stressing the fact that Orange county is to be congratulated on having such an organization. He compared the symphony with others in larger cities where music talent is more available.

SEEK TO DISSOLVE INN CORPORATION

Application for dissolution of St. Ann's Inn, a California corporation, was filed today in superior court and an order for publication of the notice was issued by Judge H. G. Ames. The petition was signed by members of the board of directors of the corporation, which was organized for the purpose of operating the inn, which was built in 1918. Directors are John Cubbon, George B. Shattuck, A. J. Cruickshank, H. J. Forgy and O. L. Halsell.

Objections to the dissolution are required to be filed with the court within 30 days from the time of the first publication of the notice.

HALE AGAINST CITY EXCLUSION IN WATER BILL

Legislation pertaining to water conservation and to school matters occupied the attention of members of the Placentia Chamber of Commerce at their Tuesday luncheon meeting in the Chamber of Commerce hall, and a resolution endorsing assembly bill No. 1861, forming a water district in Orange county was passed.

This bill was introduced by Assemblyman Ted Craig, who advised amendments which would exclude cities in the Metropolitan Water district from the proposed water district, a provision which aroused the ire of H. H. Hale, of the Anaheim Union Water company. Hale produced figures showing the acreage under irrigation in various cities, sections which he said have received the benefit of work done by the water companies.

Other bills which received attention were senate bill 449, making the county the purchasing agent for all standard school supplies, and a group of assembly bills, Nos. 664, 665, 666, 785 and 469, relating to grammar and high schools; also assembly bill No. 602 in regard to fraternities in high schools. S. James Tuffree reported on the bills, asking school boards to protest against these bills, and a motion of protest was passed by the assembly and will be sent Senator Edwards and Assemblyman Craig.

Frank Rosapaw, editor of the Placentia Courier, was host at the luncheon, and had provided as speaker Tobias Larsen, editor of the Claremont Courier, while L. M. Hopper, of the La Habra Star, and J. D. Phillips, of the Brea Press, were special guests. Larsen spoke on the wonderful changes which have taken place during his 33 years in newspaper work, telling many interesting anecdotes of the trials of a newspaper editor.

R. D. Flaherty, of the Farm bureau, spoke on the policy of that organization in regard to water conservation, and stated that while some were advocating that Orange county as a whole should belong to the Metropolitan Water district, it was advisable that more definite information be obtained before any action should be taken.

The luncheon menu and decorations carried out the St. Patrick's day theme, and Mrs. Nellie Cline, the Irish director, was presented with a bouquet of cabbage and onions, to which she responded by reciting "Off Agin, On Agin, Gone Agin, Finnegan," while numerous Irish jokes and stories were told by others.

A communication from the secretary of the Beverly Hills Chamber of Commerce in regard to Placentia's school bill was received by Secretary Pickrell, and later read at an executive session of the education committee.

Emerald Bay Map Action Deferred

Maps on a tract at Emerald Bay, near Laguna Beach, were offered to the board of supervisors yesterday for approval and acceptance, but the board preferred to take no action until after further investigation was made. The tract embraces 148 acres. Lots along the ocean front are to be deeded to a community association of purchasers of lots in the tract according to the subdividers.

ORDINANCE ON HIGHWAY FOOD SALES ADOPTED

One new ordinance and one amendment to an old ordinance, both sponsored by the county health department and affecting matters of public health, were adopted by the board of supervisors at the afternoon session yesterday and will become effective within 30 days.

The amendment affects food vending places, and is directed particularly at highway food vending vehicles, setting up certain regulations for their operation, while the new ordinance is directed to the handling of manure and garbage. Ordinance 230, entitled "an ordinance regulating restaurants, lunch counters, cafes, caterers, soda fountains, fruit stands, groceries, vehicles, popcorn, peanut and highway food vending stands or stations or other places where food is prepared for sale, sold, distributed or displayed for sale, and providing for the regulation of all persons handling food stuffs," is the one that is amended, by including the following addition regulations:

All applicants for permits to operate highway food vending vehicles are required to file with the county health department at the time of making their application for a permit, an itinerary of the proposed route, stating thereon any station at which stops will be made for more than 10 minutes, and must show a written permission from the owner of the property on which the stop is to be made. It also provides that every food vending place with the exception of food vehicles have access to convenient and adequate toilet rooms with lavatories, located on the same premises and within 200 feet of such food vending place and that the food vending vehicles shall have access to adequate toilet and lavatory facilities within 300 feet from every station at which stops of longer than 10 minutes will be made.

The new ordinance is entitled "An ordinance regulating the handling, dealing in and distributing of manure or stable, barnyard, cow yard, or poultry yard refuse in the county of Orange, establishing rules and standards for maintenance of the premises used as distributing points for such materials and regulating the hauling, transporting and conveying of the same upon the public highways."

It provides that premises where such refuse is loaded from one vehicle or container to another for distribution shall be kept in a clean and sanitary condition so it will not become a nuisance or health or fly menace to the surrounding community; that the county health department is vested with power to establish and enforce reasonable regulations for the control of fly breeding and other health menaces; that it is unlawful for any vehicle in which such refuse or noxious substances are contained to stand on or along any railroad, or public street or highway or public place any longer than necessary to unload, and in no event longer than 48 hours; that it is unlawful to permit these substances deposited in such places to remain longer than 48 hours; and that it is unlawful to transport or cause to be hauled, manure, garbage, etc., except in a vehicle so constructed, maintained and covered as not to permit such substances to escape into any public street, alley or public place, or permeate the atmosphere.

Violation of the ordinance or regulations established by the health department is to be deemed a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not less than $25 nor more than $200 or by imprisonment in the county jail for a term of from five to 30 days, or both. It is also stated that it shall be deemed a separate offense for each day or portion thereof during which is violation is committed, continued or permitted. The measures were recommended to the board by Dr. K. H. Sutherland, county health officer.

APPOINTEES TO VALENCIA SHOW GROUPS NAMED

Additional committee appointments for the Orange County Valencia Show and Fair were announced today by Loftis Loudon, of Anaheim, president of the county wide committee arranging for the affair. At the same time it was announced by George Reid, manager, that early demand for industrial space and for space in the feature departments of the orange exhibit and the diversified agricultural section augurs well for the show, which will be held June 4 to 14.

Three new committee places were given to Anaheim residents, six to Santa Ana, three to Garden Grove, two to Huntington Beach residents and one to Orange. The committee lists follow:

Concessions — Don Winans, Charles Pearson and H. N. White, all of Anaheim; agricultural clubs, Charles Van Wyk and E. E. Eastman, Santa Ana, and W. L. Jordan, Garden Grove; plate display, A. A. Brock, Santa Ana; school exhibits, Hazel Bernis, Santa Ana; Boy Scouts, Harrison White, Santa Ana; floriculture, C. C. Triplett, Orange; Henry Schmittz and George Trapp, Garden Grove, and George Vavra, Huntington Beach; parking and policing, Tom Talbert, Huntington Beach.

Ventura county has indicated a fore September 1, 1931.

desire to enter two feature exhibits, one in the orange department and the other in the diversified agricultural section. Los Angeles county has promised to be there, as have both Orange and San Bernardino counties. Pomona and Pasadena have written concerning space.

Demand for the spaces in the industrial tent has been beyond expectation, Reid said today.

CLEAN UP WEEK PLANS OUTLINED

Plans were discussed last night at the meeting of the 20-30 club for the clean-up week which is being sponsored by the organization. Reports from heads of committees indicated that work on the clean-up campaign is progressing satisfactorily and that full co-operation is being given by various business men and organizations of the city.

Hubert Gohres was chairman of the entertainment committee and introduced Miss Lucille Huston, who gave a clever acrobatic dance.

Gene Hays, of the Exchange club, extended an invitation to members of the 20-30 club to attend a luncheon to be given at the American Legion hall on April 8 in honor of Lt. Walter Hinton, famous flyer. The invitation was accepted.

An announcement was made that an invitation had been received to attend the Junior Olympic meet which is sponsored by the Azusa 20-30 club and which is to be held at the intermediate school grounds of that city, Saturday.

The event is open to boys whose sixteenth birthday does not fall before September 1, 1931.

ACTION TAKEN UPON BILLS BY COAST BODY

Action on whether to endorse or oppose two bills now before the legislature at Sacramento designed to do away with some of the evils of excessive assessments according to their proponents, but likely to hinder development in new communities according to their opponents, was deferred by the Orange County Coast association at its meeting in the Newport harbor union high school last night, after hearing a report of its legislative committee.

The committee's report, as presented by L. F. Kimmel, chairman, endorsed the two bills, Senate bill 165 and Assembly bill 218, but this was objected to by S. H. Woodruff, of Dana Point, who said that instead of limiting debts, as alleged, these bills, if they became laws, would bring death to many improvement projects. It finally was decided to leave reference to these bills out of the committee's report, which was otherwise adopted in toto.

The report, copies of which are scheduled to be sent to Senator Edwards and Assemblyman Craig, indorses a bill to allow cities of the sixth class a tax limit of $125

CLUB PLANNING RECEPTION FOR FAMOUS FLIER

Plans for a reception for Lieut. Walter Hinton, pilot of the NC-4, first plane to span the Atlantic, and the first to fly to South America, who will arrive in Santa Ana at 11 a. m. on April 8, were begun at the regular meeting of the Exchange club held yesterday noon in the Santa Ana cafe.

Hinton is engaged in a nationwide tour of "Service to Aviation" being sponsored by the Exchange clubs of the country. Alan Hershey is chairman of the committee appointed to make plans for Hinton's appearance in Santa Ana. Delegates to various organizations in the city were appointed yesterday to ask the co-operation of the organization in making the affair one of outstanding of the year.

A hangar for housing Hinton's plane has been arranged for at Eddie Martin's airport and a parade with an official escort will bring him to the city.

Lieut. Hinton will be the central figure in the day's activities. He will address a civic aviation luncheon or dinner, under Exchange club auspices, which will be attended by city officials, other organizations, local aviation enthusiasts, and representatives from Exchange clubs of surrounding cities.

It is expected that Lieut. Hinton also will speak at other aviation assemblies, and before the high school students.

An authority on aviation matters, Lieut. Hinton will speak as an aviation counselor, discussing the local problems of establishing needed airports, landing fields, air markers, and other aviation projects. Of particular interest to the merchants and business men, he will discuss data on air transport operations and its value to them in carrying air mail and freight, and the use of air travel generally.

He also will tell his own story of piloting the first trans-Atlantic flight, and relate experiences in airplane exploration of the Brazilian jungles.

Refuse Offer To Purchase Lands

An offer to purchase 47 lots which have been deeded to the state for unpaid taxes at a price less than the amount of the taxes due, was presented to the board of supervisors yesterday by Tax Collector John Lamb. The proposal had been made by a Long Beach party, who made an offer of $10 each for the lots, which have approximately $25 each in taxes against them. The board refused to consider the offer, expressing the belief that the lots, which are in the west part of the county, just west of the Bolsa Chico road, are worth more than the offer made and can be sold to advantage at a later date.

EDWARDS HIGHWAY BILL IS APPROVED

Senator Nels T. Edwards' bill adding 804 miles of highways to the state secondary highway system, of which 633 miles are located in Southern California and 171 miles in the northern part of the state, was given final approval by the state legislature yesterday and now goes to Governor Rolph for his signature.

The measure, which had previously been adopted by the state senate, was passed by the assembly yesterday. Signature of the state executive is believed to be assured by those in close touch with the matter.

Provisions of the measure, which is based on a survey conducted by the state department of public works, put into effect a policy of building up the mileage of state highways in the south to the point where it will equal that in the north, which previously has had a far greater portion of state highways.

Two Orange county roads are included under the bill—the Brea canyon road between Fullerton and Pomona, and the Santa Ana canyon road between Riverside and Newport Beach. The county will be relieved of maintenance of these highways in the future.

Order Removal Of Road Signboard

Following receipt of a letter from Fred Bixby, of Long Beach, calling attention to the fact that a signboard has been erected along West Seventeenth street inside the highway right-of-way, near the Bolsa Chica road, the board of supervisors yesterday referred the matter to the highway department with instructions to see that it was removed. Bixby called attention to the fact that he was keeping all signs off the Hellman ranch property in accordance with an understanding to keep the highway free of sign boards.

NEW SAN GABRIEL BRIDGE PLANNED

Plans for a new bridge, across the proposed San Gabriel river outlet as planned by the Los Angeles county flood control district, opening a direct route from Long Beach to Seal Beach and along the coast, were told to the board of supervisors yesterday afternoon by Flood Control Engineer Eaton, of Los Angeles.

Eaton announced that a bridge costing $180,000 was planned adjacent to the present Pacific Electric bridge, and that funds for its cost were being solicited from Long Beach, road and other department funds in Los Angeles county, and that it was hoped Orange county would co-operate to the extent of $20,000. The bridge will be located entirely within the boundaries of Orange county, he declared.

Canvass of opinion of board members, by Chairman John C. Mitchell revealed that they would favor such an appropriation provided the project as completed was financed as outlined by Eaton and met the approval of the city of Seal Beach. The project is in connection with relocating the mouth of the San Gabriel river, shifting it over into Orange county, and Los Angeles county is attempting to purchase a tract of ground here in connection with the project, which it is stated will be used as a park.

CHURCHES PLAN ON PRE-EASTER AIR SERVICES

A 15 day series of pre-Easter radio services in which Nazarene churches of the Orange county district will co-operate will start over KREG tomorrow. The programs, which will be on the air from 9:30 to 10 a. m. each day except Sunday up to and including April 4, will feature old time gospel songs by Mrs. J. C. Miller, Mrs. H. J. Hart and Mrs. U. E. Harding, of Santa Ana. Vocal solos and duets will be presented.

Adding to the old time atmosphere will be an old fashioned chapel organ, which will be used to accompany the singers. The instrument will be furnished by the Chandler Music company. Gospel messages from five to seven minutes in length will be given by pastors of the 11 churches in the district, which includes the first and second Nazarene churches in Long Beach and the Nazarene church in Whittier. The Rev. U. E. Harding, pastor of the Santa Ana church, will be in charge of the first three services, after which pastors of other churches will officiate.

The object of the services, according to the Rev. Mr. Harding, is to promote interest in the churches at Easter time. In various towns throughout the district where Nazarene churches are located, homes will be opened and neighbors will be asked to listen to the programs over the radio. Beginning on March 30 the Vaughn School of Music at Lawrenceburg, Tenn., will sing each morning and will take part in the pre-Easter services of the Santa Ana church, which holds meetings in the Mission theater building.

AL G. BARNES CIRCUS COMING TO SANTA ANA

The red wagons are coming! The Al G. Barnes circus, one of the world's largest will exhibit in Santa Ana on Friday, March 27. Three special trains are used this season to transport this great organization. Traveling with it are 1,000 employees in addition to 100 advance men. Twenty-two tents covering 12 acres of ground house the transient city in the daytime. The circus has its own doctor, lawyer, dentist, U. S. postman, detective, blacksmith, carpenters.

STAR OF RING

Mme. Alberta Belmont, shown here, will perform in the Al G. Barnes circus, which will be in Santa Ana on March 27. Mme. Belmont is a member of the Belmont family of equestrians, from England, which also will be seen in the show.

and, in fact, every artisan found in the average small city.

The famous Al G. Barnes menagerie, declared to be the finest and most complete traveling zoo in the world, is a part of the show. Many new, rare and costly specimens of the wild animal kingdom have been gathered from all parts of the globe. Tapirs, gnus, Vlack Varks, lions, tigers, camels, dromedaries, zebras, leop-ards, panthers, yaks, amurs, jaguars, elands, seals and three herds of elephants are but a part of the traveling university of natural history.

The wonder spectacle of all time, "Persia", and the Pageant of Pekin, are used this season as a prelude to the circus proper. An immense theater would be naught compared with the five rings that give play to this epic. More than 1,000 men, women, horses, camels and elephants take part in this never-to-be-forgotten pantomime of enchantment. Upwards of $70,000 was expended on wardrobe. The mighty audiences which daily greet the production are among the largest that have ever been drawn together in the history of the amusement world.

Great stars from 18 foreign countries, the respective champions in their line, participate in the display. The trained wild animal displays are headed by Miss Mabel Stark, Johnny Myers and Capt. Terrell Jacobs. In massive steel girded arenas will be seen performing lions, tigers, jaguars, and pumas, all subjugated by master trainers. Forty dancing horses and forty dancing girls will be seen in a horse show unparalleled. Among the sixty equestrians will be the Belmont family, an English importation; the Grezelle troupe come from Belgium to amaze and thrill you in their riding numbers. The great Gretons from the Imperial Winter Garden in Berlin perform high up in the dome of the arena tent, riding bicycles on a slender thread of steel and performing gymnastic feats. From Mexico comes Alex Acevedo in a daring and sensational slack wire act. Sixty clowns will furnish fun for the little folks.

Performances will be given at 2 and 8 p. m. Doors will be opened an hour earlier to permit an inspection of the zoo or to enjoy a concert of popular and operatic music by Prof. Redrick and his military band.

Mrs. A. F. Hasso gave an interesting story of the Methodist missionary work in Mexico.

Mrs. E. L. Bennett, president, was detained at home on account of the serious illness of James Bennett.

Regan, Mr. and Mrs. John Humeston and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Riley, of Long Beach. FOLLIES WILL HELP STUDENT LOAN PROJECT

Aiding an organization that makes possible the continued education of many ambitious students who otherwise could not attend college, all proceeds of the Orange County Follies will be turned directly into the coffers of the Student Loan fund. The revue is to be presented next Saturday evening, in the high school auditorium by pupils of the Claire Coutant School of Dancing.

In replenishing the rapidly depleting treasury of the Student Loan fund, the program will be assisting the only fund of its kind in Santa Ana, as there is no other source from which worthy students may secure similar long term loans.

Talent from each of several Orange county branch schools in Fullerton and Anaheim will be combined in a gala pageant of song, dance and comedy. Miss Coutant is well known for the several previous revues she has successfully staged at the Fox West Coast and Fox Broadway theaters. The coming recital, it is asserted, will be one of the most colorful and pretentious amateur productions ever seen on local stages.

Several of Santa Ana's favorite juvenile entertainers will appear, while Miss Coutant's assistant teachers, Miss Vera Getty, Miss Betty Bondley, and Miss Kathryn Baker also will offer featured solo numbers.

Tickets may be obtained at the Farmers' and Merchants' bank, all Santa Ana schools, Tustin High school, and at the auditorium box office Saturday night.

SECURES LICENSE

ANAHEIM, March 18.—Roger Dahlheim has taken out a license to transact business for the Kelsey Investment company in the store on West Center formerly occupied by the Danz Music company. He expects to open the place of business tomorrow.

La Habra Slated To Get Entire New Police Force

CITY COUNCIL CUTS SALARIES OF 3 OFFICERS

LA HABRA, March 18.—As an economy measure, a recommendation was made at the city council meeting last night by the police committee, headed by H. A. Robinson, that the resignation of the chief, James Caldwell, be asked to take effect April 1, and that Archie Collins, of Fullerton, be named the new chief of police.

The recommendation also calls for a cut in wages for the three officers. Wages will be $150 for the chief, $120 for traffic officer and $100 for night man. Collins is said to be willing to accept the position at the reduced salary and the other two officers are expected to be selected from La Habra applicants.

The entire change in the personnel of the police department came as a surprise to many. Collins has had several years' experience as an officer. Arrangement has been made whereby he will use his own car much of the time for police duty, thus eliminating the necessity of purchasing a new car for traffic duty.

Ordinance number 69, sale of franchise to the Southern California Edison company, was given the first reading. A motion was made that necessary steps be taken to collect delinquent taxes from the water company, including filing suit if necessary in joint action with the county.

Central Rental Bureau Discussed By Laguna Board

LAGUNA BEACH, March 18.—Problems in connection with instituting a central rental bureau and the determination to rush enrollment of property owners were before the Realty board Tuesday noon. R. C. Mackey is head of the membership committee.

C. Hartwell Smith told the board of the value of a survey to show housing conditions, sanitation, streets and other information tabulated. He also suggested a map to show appraised values by districts.

The rental bureau is to come before the board at its first April meeting. As tentatively suggested, houses would be listed for rent, information to be carried showing rental rate, condition, and other items. That undesirable tenants could be excluded was pointed out as one of the advantages.

COMEDY SKIT PRESENTED BY COLLEGE CLUBS

FULLERTON, March 18.—"Cleopatra," a musical comedy skit, was presented at the assembly of Fullerton Junior college students yesterday morning by members of the Men's glee club, with Benjamin Edwards, voice instructor, in charge.

The story of "Cleopatra" centers about the love affair of the modernized vampire, and William, her lover. William decides to defeat his rivals by frightening them and impersonates the ghost of King Tut. The numerous exciting situations which result when the ghost comes upon the young wooers provides the plot for the production.

Members of the cast were: Bill Nash as Cleopatra; James Dyer, William; Phil Smith, Caesar, football hero and another lover of Cleopatra; Emblem Cook, Anthony, football captain, and Stanley Williams, Pompei. Members of the glee club also sang chorus numbers.

Miss Charlotte Davis played an organ concert as a prelude to the program.

Members of the commencement committee for the sophomore class held a short meeting following the assembly, discussing details for the graduation program. Selection of a speaker was also discussed although no definite choice has yet been made.

CITY ATTORNEY CRITICIZED ON ALLEGED LAXITY

FULLERTON, March 18.—Charging that City Attorney Albert Launer had failed to prosecute numerous cases in which retail meat dealers were operating in Fullerton without a license, C. G. Meyers, merchant of Fullerton, demanded that the city council take action to eliminate laxity in the enforcement of the city license ordinance, at a regular meeting of the Fullerton city council last night in the council chambers.

"If the present city attorney is too busy to prosecute these cases, the city should find someone who will," Meyers declared. "The attorney before Mr. Launer always found a way to make outsiders pay a license as well as the city's merchants and there is no reason why the present attorney cannot."

Meyers declared that the policy of permitting some outsiders to sell meat in the city without licenses had been going on ever since Launer was acting as city attorney. Meyers cited a recent case in which he declared Launer refused to prosecute a case of an outside dealer without a license.

"Our city is the laughing stock and our police department is the laughing stock in this respect, and it is time something is done about it," Meyers concluded.

City Clerk F. C. Hezmalhalch explained that the city has been collecting fines for dealers operating without licenses but that due to certain weaknesses of the present ordinance, certain outside dealers had been able to evade paying licenses.

Launer declared that it was his policy to prosecute all cases in which the city license ordinance was being violated. He explained, however, that the present ordinance does not provide for wholesale dealers but that he had prosecuted all cases in which retail business had been involved.

He denied the statement of Meyers that he had refused to prosecute any retail cases and assured the council that he was appreciative of any constructive information relating to dealers operating unlawfully.

Launer also recommended to the council that certain changes be made in the license ordinance in order that all dealers who are now evading the license be forced to pay the same as all local dealers.

The matter was referred to Launer for further investigation after which he will make recommendations to the council.

Evans To Leave Schools At Mesa

COSTA MESA, March 17.—Dale Hamilton Evans, district superintendent of the Costa Mesa grammar schools for the past seven years, who has notified the school board that he is not a candidate for the position for the coming school year, stated today that he was not ready to announce his plans for the future.

Evans became principal of the present school at a time when the student enrollment was about 200, with five teachers in charge, and one school in operation. Today, 650 students are enrolled. There are 23 teachers, with three grammar school plants working.

A close check will be kept on all dogs and M. D. Clay is to pick up those found running loose.

ROAD WIDENING IS DISCUSSED IN FULLERTON

FULLERTON, March 18.—Details of problems concerning the widening of North Spadra road north of the Pacific Electric viaduct were discussed at a conference of city council members and representatives of the county and state highway departments yesterday afternoon in the council chambers.

S. V. Cortelyou, state highway engineer, was present at the meeting and explained that the state, before making appropriations to assist in the widening project, is asking a 100-foot right-of-way north of the viaduct.

Members of the council pointed out that the barranca running parallel to North Spadra road would extend into the 100-foot right-of-way at various points and suggested that if the desired right-of-way was to be obtained the barranca should be filled in at certain points to divert the flow of water to make room for the highway widening project and additional ground that the state desires.

Others matters of detail in regard to the cuts and fills to the road-way were also discussed by the group, although no definite action was taken. City Engineer C. M. Thorpe was instructed to make a further study regarding the barranca and report at a future meeting of the group.

State aid in the project has been assured by Cortelyou with the reservation that the 100-foot right-of-way be secured.

Natt Neff, county highway engineer, was present and made a study of the plans and specifications as prepared by the city engineering department. County aid in the widening project has been assured.

The city council recently decided to proceed with the project from Chapman avenue north to the Pacific Electric viaduct since all adjacent property owners in that section have agreed to the project. Actual work on the widening is expected within the near future. Final action authorizing the project north of the viaduct north to the city limits is also expected as soon as numerous details have been worked out.

COLDS

Break Up in a Jiffy
This Quick Way

Feel Like A New Man Almost Before You Know It

People have found out that new-fangled ideas and notions don't break up colds. So millions have turned back to first principles and use what they know breaks one up in a jiffy. Even a "little" cold is too dangerous to trifle with.

The thing to do is to get Hill's Cascara Quinine at any drug store. Take two tablets now. Then follow directions on box. Drink lots of water, too—that's all.

Soon you'll start to feel like a new person. Things will loosen up, your head will clear; aching go—you'll be back on the job with a wallop.

Get Hill's now. It is a scientific formula made to do one thing well: to knock a cold—not to cure a thousand ailments. Get your money back if it doesn't work with twice the speed of anything else you've ever tried.

SPRINGDALE

SPRINGDALE, March 18.—Mrs. George Chapman motored to Long Beach Tuesday, visiting her friend, Mrs. Williams, at the hospital where she is recovering from an operation performed the week before.

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Roberson entertained as guests for the day, E. R. King and a friend from Buffalo, N. Y., with whom he is touring the west. Mr. King's father and Mrs. Roberson were childhood friends.

Mrs. Z. D. Crane had the opportunity of meeting an old friend from Decatur, Ill., one day this week in Huntington Beach. The friend, Mrs. Agnes Bradshaw, recently came to Long Beach, and knowing Mrs. Crane resided not far from Huntington Beach, was inquiring about her at a place of business when Mrs. Crane chanced to pass and the proprietor, seeing her, reunited the two friends.

A large bedroom with outside entrance has been completed as an addition to the Charles Graham home. The room is for the two sons of the home, Alvin and Roger Dean.

Mrs. Zine Crane had as visitors and callers in her home during the week, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Westby and son, Norman, of Huntington Beach; Mrs. Charles Wentzel and Mrs. Forrest Hudson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Graham spent Sunday at Puente with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Lyons, and in the evening they had as guests Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sherwood, of Hollywood, and Mrs. Sherwood's mother, Mrs. Farrell. Walter Graham and daughter, of San Pedro, also were visitors in the Graham home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Graham and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Decker were entertained as evening dinner guests by Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Graham.

Mr. and Mrs. Zine Crane were entertained as dinner guests and for the evening at Long Beach in the home of Mrs. Crane's mother, Mrs. Talbert and Mrs. Crane also attended the Royal Neighbors lodge meeting at the beach.

SEEK GEORGE-LONDOS GO Stars To Practice Monday

DALEY. HUNTER MAY, MAY NOT BE WITH CLUB

hooks and slides
william braucher

Friday the 13th, the income tax, St. Patrick's Day and Spring all come in the March of Events, but human interest here has established none of these as more important than the annual beginning of practice by the Santa Ana Stars, night baseball champions of Southern California.

The Stars come out of hibernation next Monday night and with a new manager in charge, George Lackaye, will progress through their first workout of the 1931 campaign.

Players, old and new alike, will drill in the Bowl, the Stars' home grounds, the finest park of its kind.

Manager Lackaye has issued a general invitation to candidates to participate in the first two weeks of training. He says every position on his team is as open as the Grand Canyon and that Santa Ana's lineup will not be decided until after every man has been given an opportunity to prove his mettle.

Stockbridge "Discovered" Lackaye recalls that Glenn Stockbridge, one of the best pitchers that owl baseball has yet produced, was discovered as a result of a free-for-all battle for positions; so he is passing up no position. He thinks that maybe in the general run of ambitious athletes somewhere will be found a night ball Ruth, Traynor or Vance.

The holdovers will be given most of the attention, of course. More or less established, they will be considered regulars until better men beat them out of their jobs. And the Stars must have had some pretty fair ball players last year to win the Southland pennant in a grueling playoff series of ten games with Whittier and Colton.

Nevertheless, it is no state secret that several positions on the list are actually open—chiefly because veterans who played them in 1930 may not be wearing Santa Ana monkey-suits this term.

Cole Not to Play Bill Cole, veteran first baseman, has already resigned as a regular. "Big Bill" intends to lead the luxurious life this summer, hobnobbing with sanddabs at a nearby beach.

There is a world of doubt, too, whether Leavitt Daley and Bill Hunter will be back. Daley pitched second base last year. Hunter was at third. So the Stars may go to the post May 1 with little "Memphy" Hill at shortstop, a lone holdover at four tremendously important infield stations.

Daley was reported definitely lost to the club a week ago. Now it appears that perhaps things have been worked out with Daley's Long Beach employers whereby the brilliant infielder, Santa Ana's premier batsman in 1930, can participate with the Stars except on nights their schedule conflicts with his company team.

Hunter to Riverside? Hunter, reported within the fold a few days ago, may be out of it already. According to reports, the strong-armed third baseman has been transferred by his employers from San Pedro to San Bernardino and will rejoin his old teammates on the Riverside club this season. If this is true, the Stars will not stand in his way. Hunter, a Riverside boy, naturally prefers to play with the Rubs.

Five pitchers are expected to carry on in practice and at least two of them will be with the team all season. Joe Ochoa, with Anaheim last year, and Joe Cornelius, who won 27 games and lost 6 for the Stars, are considered regulars. Walt Jordan, a husky youngster who has been threatening to deliver for several years and who may be a real winner with the 13-1-2 inch ball, will get a chance. Cliff Barnes, a lanky youngster from Laguna Beach, and "Bono" Koral, a member of the squad part of '30, will get tryouts too. Stockbridge, hero of the 1928 season, is signed to a Santa Ana contract but he will not be with the team as he landed a job in Bakersfield.

"Eeny" Wilcox, the best catcher in night ball, has no opposition for his position. Wilcox's receiving last summer was a revelation to night ball followers.

A free-for-all is on for the first

DID YOU KNOW THAT—

University of Georgia's great end combination on the gridiron a few years ago is bidding for big league fame this spring. Ivy Shiver is causing cold chills to some of the regular outfielders on the Detroit Tigers' roster, and Tom Nash is listed as a flycatcher with the McGraw clan. Shiver bruised Texas League fences last year with Beaumont. Nash cavorted on Asheville's Sally league entry. Jack Curley has an idea he can draw 60,000 persons to an outdoor wrestling party this summer in New York. He intends to pair the two world champions, Londos and George. Gotch and Hackenschmidt set the outdoor attendance record when 33,000 people saw them wrestle for the title in White Sox park, Chicago, many years ago.

BASEBALL? NO, TURF!

MIAMI, Fla.—Baseball may have brought several hundred young, middle-aged and grizzled athletes into the south for the annual rehearsal of major league lines, but nowhere down here is talk of the national pastime loud enough to drown out completely the chattering and gossipings of the turf fans.

You may stumble into one group loudly upholding Equi-poise as the coming three-year-old champion and one certain to emulate the winning habits of Gallant Fox, whom some of you may remember from last summer. Another little gathering may be discussing Jamestown and squawking their very heads off because Owner Jack Joyner decided not to send the son of St. James to race in the Kentucky Derby next May. And still other groups of men are wagging their heads, waving their arms and making queer noises about purses, starting dates, jockeys in general, Earl Sande's movie venture and Sonny Workman's injury in particular.

Pretty soon, however, these fellows will be moving northward. Most of the racing stables are planning to move out at the end of the month, prior to swinging into the 1931 campaigns in Maryland, New York and Illinois.

GOLD IN RACING

I would like to make it plain right now that money flows freely in horse racing these days. It takes only a few of the larger stakes to total a million dollars in gross value. The 10 richest stakes add up to three-quarters of a million in round numbers.

No, sir, pick and shovel aren't essential in digging gold these days. The Agua Caliente Handicap of March 22 is going to reward the winner with a nice little present of approximately $108,000, an amount which will displace the Belmont Futurity as the world's richest race. And if Willis Sharpe Kilmer's Sun Beau should poke his nose under the wire ahead of the field, that $100,000 or so will elevate him to the top in the list of the world's greatest money winning horses.

TEN RICHEST PURSES

During 1930 when the doings of Gallant Fox and his capable manipulator, Sande, set the turf world ablaze, the Belmont Futurity, in which Jamestown galloped to victory, stood at the top in net value. Jamestown carried away $99,000 in that race, topping by $1200 the amount paid the owners of Victorian for his victory in the Agua Caliente feature a year ago.

In the remainder of the 10 highest stakes, Gallant Fox appears four times. He grabbed the Arlington Classic, worth $64,750 to Owner William Woodward; the Belmont Stakes, worth $66,040; the Preakness, returning $51,925, and the Kentucky Derby, netting $50,725. Others in the 10-richest-purses group were the Hopeful Stakes, which Epitaph won to draw down $55,000; Pimlico Futurity, in which Equi-poise's victory was worth $50,360; the Arlington Handicap won by Pigeon Hole and worth $34,400; and the South Maryland Handicap, a feature in which Sun Beau carried off the winner's prize of $34,000.

SANTA ANA-SAN DIEGO H.-B. TRACK TITLE REIGN MAY BE SEVERED AT LAST SATURDAY

Santa Ana, San Diego and Huntington Beach have kept the championship of the Southern Counties Invitational track championship "in the family" ever since the meet was organized in 1922, but this year's renewal of the annual Huntington Beach classic may see an "outsider" crowding into the select circle for the first time. Santa Ana and Huntington Beach are conceded no chance of winning and San Diego, while typically strong, is not unbeatable, so a dark horse may have a field day Saturday, at last.

Santa Ana, defending champion, holds four victories in past meets. San Diego has been first three times, Huntington Beach twice.

A record of winners follows:

PREVIOUS WINNERS
1922—Santa Ana
1923—Huntington Beach
1924—Huntington Beach
1925—San Diego
1926—San Diego
1927—Santa Ana
1928—Santa Ana
1929—San Diego
1930—Santa Ana

The Saints had a cakewalk last year, rolling up 47 points to Chaffey's 20 and Huntington Beach's 19, but Coach Clyde Patton has only 13 of those 47 this season with few replacements for the "sure points" that the since departed Norman Paul, Al Rebohn, Doyle Gilbert and Lloyd Nuzum provided in 1930.

The "returning points" came from Paul Jacques, captain of the present forces, and Jim Daneri. Jacques won the high jump last year. Daneri won the 440 and was second in the discus. Jacques should take the high jump again but Daneri, shifted to the low hurdles this season, is no cinch to score the five points in that race that he pulled out of the quarter last semester. He is not likely to go any stronger in the discus, but may come up with a point or two in the shot.

TROJAN FOOTBALL PROFITS FOR 1930 SEASON $374,281

LOS ANGELES, March 18.—While football usually has been considered in the class with Wall Street, announcement of football receipts at the University of Southern California for the 1929-1930 season by Manager Arnold Eddy, definitely put the sport in the big-business class.

Receipts for that period totaled $1,226,630.71, Eddy announced. Of course, that was not all velvet, for the Trojans wound up the season with only $374,281.61 profit, which went to pay for a $400,000 student union building which cares for 5000 students.

Here's where the rest of that money went:

Rent of stadium, $653,774.32; coaches, medical staff and supplies, $63,624.72.

Notables To Attend Troy Club's Meet

University of Southern California athletic notables will attend the April 8 meeting here of the Orange County Trojan club.

Orv Mohler, All-American football star, and Ernie Payne, captain of the track squad, as well as Dean Cromwell, veteran track coach, and Justin (Sam) Barry, basketball and baseball mentor, will be guests. The glee club and other musicians from S. C. will appear on the program.

The meeting will be held at the Santa Ana cafe.

Ted Kuchel, Anaheim, is president of the club.

ELEVEN HORSES DUE TO START CALIENTE RACE

AGUA CALIENTE, March 18.—Highly conditioned thoroughbreds await the bugle's call to the barrier in the second renewal of the $140,000 Agua Caliente Handicap.

Eleven steeds, including the American champion, Sun Beau, are scheduled to go postward Sunday, providing the race remains fast. In the event of mud at least one more goes into the colossal combat.

The youthful James Crofton, president of the Agua Caliente Jockey club guarantees the winner will receive not less than $100,000. The second horse draws $10,000, the third $5000, and the fourth $2500.

If Sun Beau wins he will bowl over Gallant Fox and Zev, to become the world's greatest money winning thoroughbred. It was for this reason that he made the trip to the Mexican course. Sun Beau, at the present time, holds fourth place with close to $271,000 to his credit. Gallant Fox, permanently retired, annexed $228,165.

Sun Beau has no path of roses. Mustered against him are some of the finest horses in the land, Mike Hall and Pigeon Hole, pride of Kentucky; the great mare, Lady Broadcast, recognized as the leader of her sex; Sandy Ford, winner of the Dixie Handicap and lately the sensation of Miami racing; the New York pair Vanity and Caruso; The Choctaw, Audley farm's sleeper, which awakened Sunday; California's two mightiest thoroughbreds, Ervast and Alexander Pantages; and the outsider, Plucky Play.

Sun Beau has ruled favorite since the day "future book" odds were first announced. The public believes he will win, as witness the bulk of money ventured on his chances, and his form at Agua Caliente in two races under colors, indicates he goes into the clash in the height of condition.

TRAINING CAMP BRIEFS

LOS ANGELES, March 18.—(UP)—The Chicago Cubs will do their spring training at Wrigley field, Los Angeles, instead of Catalina next year, with Bill Wrigley's other team, the Los Angeles Angels of the Pacific Coast league going to his island of the coast of Southern California. President Bill Veeck of the Cubs announced today.

The move is expected to benefit the Angels in that they will make no appearance on their home grounds until the league season starts. The Cubs hammered out a 9 to 4 victory over the Angels in their sixth game here yesterday.

Coast league baseball teams were busy with exhibition games and training camp routine today. The San Francisco missions, victorious in the first practice session with Detroit, suffered a setback in the second game when Waite Hoyt, their pitching ace, held them to two runs while his team mates were gathering six.

The Oakland Aacorns, playing on their home field against the Pittsburgh Pirates, fared no better. The Buccaneers emerged on the long end of a 5 to 1 score with Melne, pitcher, the hero of the game. Besides hurling airtight ball, Melne drove in the winning runs with a double in the fourth inning when the bases were full.

Jimmy Zinn and Elmer Jacobs, mainstays of the Seattle pitching staff, will be ready when the team plays the Chicago Cubs next week, according to Manager Nick Williams.

Ossie Orwall was handed the first base berth with the Portland Beavers today because of injuries to Jack Fenton, who was struck in the back by a pitched ball in a game with the Agnew State Hospital team Sunday.

Seattle completed arrangements at Woodland for two exhibition games with Detroit this week-end.

RIVAL CHAMPS MAY GRAPPLE THIS SUMMER

NEW YORK, March 18.—When Greek meets Greek you have a restaurant, but if a Greek wrestler named Jim Londos will meet Ed (Don) George for the undisputed championship of the world at Ebbets field in June you will have a sellout with 60,000 fans paying $300,000, to witness the champions of the rival wrestling herds come to grips.

The idea has been the dream of every wrestling promoter in the country for the past three months but the figures are those of James J. Johnston, who will promote wrestling and boxing matches at the Brooklyn ball park this summer. Johnston wants to start operations with this "wrestling match of the century" and is making every effort to bring the head men of the rival groups together.

Londos has been broadcasting for some time that he would tackle any wrestler in the world. Yesterday George declared he was ready to post $10,000 to meet any qualified challenger who would post $5000 as a guaranty of good faith. The former Michigan collegian makes his New York debut a week from tonight.

REID SECTION WINS TITLE AT LATHROP

After hurdle races were run off yesterday, it was found that Miss Reid's high-nine section had won the Julia Lathrop junior high school inter-class meet with 31 points. The Tummond section was second with 28-1-2. Others scored as follows: Hart, 27; Young, 25-1-2; Nicholson, 23-1-2; Gordon, 20-1-2; Ward, 20; Swales, 12; Blyth, 12; Speed, 12; Sinke, 9-1-2; Adams, 7-1-2; Scott, 9; Foster, 8; Kline, 4-1-2; Wolff, 3-1-2; Thrasher, 2-1-2.

Midjet division—D. Baker, first; Hawk, second; Brooks, third; Norton, fourth. Junior division—H. Baker, first; Miller, second; Bucher, third; McVatt, fourth. Intermediate division—McCune, first; R. Holmes, second; Bennett, third; Porter, fourth. Senior division—Millard, first; Shill, second; L. Holmes, third; Breeding, fourth.

WOMEN GOLFERS IN TOURNEY THURSDAY

Competition for Class A, B and C players is on the women's golf program at the Santa Ana Country club tomorrow. Contesting for a silver cup and golf balls, "A" golfers will clash in a tournament in which the fewest putts for 18 holes will win and "B" players in an 18-hole "baseball throw" tourney. Class C players will play blind bogey.

LEMON KNOCKED OUT IN PORTLAND FIGHT

PORTLAND, Ore., March 18.—(UP)—George Dixon, 165-pound Portland Negro, opened up such an ugly cut over the left eye of Romeo Lemon, 157-1-2, that the 18-year-old Fullerton, Cal., schoolboy, was forced to accept a seven round technical knockout in a scheduled 10 round bout here last night.

FOUR TILTS BOOKED FOR HANCOCK NINE

Manager Carl Ruecker has no less than four ball games tentatively scheduled for the Santa Ana Hancock Oil team, he announced today. The club goes to Bell Sunday and will meet Lomita the following Sabbath. Return contests with Colton and North Pasadena probably will follow.

LEWIS, MARSHALL WRESTLE TONIGHT

LOS ANGELES, March 18.—(UP)—"Strangler" Lewis, veteran wrestler, will meet Everette Marshall, Colorado mat king, in a finish battle at the Olympic tonight. Victory for Lewis would bring him one step nearer to a championship bout with ("Don") George.

BRUSHING UP SPORTS - - - - - By LAUFER

NOBODY ever played baseball harder than Charley Schmidt, old-time Detroit catcher. But his very intensity once caused him to pull a boner that cost a ball game. Detroit was leading St. Louis 2 to 1, when in an attempt to prevent a theft of home, Schmidt pushed the batter out of his way, caught the ball and apparently kept the tying run from scoring. Under the rules, Schmidt's act created an interference, also a balk on the pitcher. The runner who seemed out was allowed to score on the balk, and the batter was sent to first base on account of the interference. An error and a base hit scored another run and won the game for St. Louis.

GOOD SUPPORT PROMISED FOR FUENTE, HAYNES

Although the Tony Fuente-Leroy Haynes main event, a ten-rounder, figures on paper to be the hot spot of the program, Matchmaker Benny Whitman points with especial pride to the supporting lineup on his Orange County Athletic club card tomorrow night.

For his third show at the Delhi arena, the enterprising Whitman has scheduled five four-round fights so even if Fuente and Haynes flop as an attraction, the entertainment is not likely to be without merits.

Jack Magrina and Jimmy Bell, 180-pounders, draw the semi-windup assignment. Magrina threw one bad fight here, more than a year ago, and wants to make up for it. He didn't do well against Wally Fraser and caught a suspension for it, but his poor showing justified. When Fraser was Fraser none of his opponents wanted to mix.

Bell is a big fellow who recently beat Hans Birkie, a well-regarded San Francisco heavyweight.

The best bout on the whole bill looks to be the special event between Baby Jack Dempsey and Cliff Burrier, lightweights. Those who have always wanted to see the hard-hitting Baby Jack against an equally potent puncher should be satisfied here. Burrier is no champion but he will be no touch for the "Alhambra Assassin" who has slapped down a lot of ordinary opponents here. If he fights instead of mauls, Burrier has a chance to stop Dempsey. The Baby's chin is none too sturdy.

Frankie Manns and Pete Savendra, a couple of featherweights who got draws out of matches with Tony Moreno, hook up in another preliminary. Manns has shown at Delhi before, always with distinction.

Whitman has also paired Johnny Godinez and Tommy Santos on the strength of their stirring slugging bee at Pismo Beach last week. They were in the semi-windup slot at Pismo and slammed each other all over the place to a draw which had the fans in an uproar. They are 126-pounders.

Danny Robles and Adam Morago, another set of featherweights, will open the show. Last week Robles was in a main event at the Main Street club uptown. Morago is a local boy of unusual promise. Maybe he is overmatched in this one, but Manager Bill Darnley thinks not.

DO THEY CHECK 'EM?

The Chicago Blackhawks of the National Hockey league boast the heaviest pair of defense players in the game in Taffy Abel, weight 220, and Duke Dutkowskl, who tips the beam at 210.

WEST WINDS Here and There in Local Sport By EDDIE WEST

It's a longer cry from 1922 to 1931 than you might admit—in high school track, at least. It is hard keeping up with the improvement of Joe Prep.

Compare the results of the first annual Southern Counties Invitational with records, shown in another column on this page, for the meet which observes its tenth anniversary at Huntington Beach Saturday.

In 1922, the 100 yard dash was won in 10-2-5 seconds by a fellow known as Andrew Jackson Cook of Anaheim. He's the same Bill Cook now coaching Santa Ana Jaycees.

The 220 went to Sherb, Santa Monica, in 23-2-5; the 440 to White, Compton, in 52-4-5; the 880 to mile to Hellman, San Diego, in 2:09-2-5 and 4:50, respectively; the high hurdles to Ross Nichols, then a freshman at Huntington Beach, in 16-4-5, and the lows to Messing of Santa Ana in 27 flat.

Martin of Riverside won the shot at 45 feet, 41-2 inches, and the discus with a toss of 124 feet. Smith of San Diego and Bickmore of Huntington Beach tied for first in the pole vault with lifts of 11 feet, 9 inches. Patton, Riverside, was best in the broad jump with a hop of 21 feet, 7 inches. Bickmore took the high jump at 5 feet, 8-1-2 inches.

MR. OLIVER'S ANSWER N. P. Nellson, who has one of those long, pompous school titles you never can remember, urges many "reforms" in high school athletics.

As chief of the division of health and physical education of the state department of education, Mr. Nellson would eliminate many alleged "evils"—notably spring football, junior high school football, baseball, throwing the discus and javelin, and playboys for district championships.

In this connection it is interesting to note that on Monday afternoon next, Mr. Gerald Allen Oliver, the well known Texan, mobilizes his Santa Ana high school football clan for two months of spring diodes.

"My only other answer to Mr. Nellson is a question," says Oliver. "I should like to ask Mr. Nellson if he would limit boys to tennis in spring, swimming in summer and basketball in winter."

SAYS PROTESTS ON DRAIN NOT FILED ON TIME

ORANGE, March 18.—That protests on the $77,000 storm drain recently completed here should have been filed prior to March 17 and not prior to 1 o'clock on that date, was the opinion given by H. L. Dearing, attorney for the city, at a meeting yesterday of the city council which had been set to hear protests on the assessment roll. The role was accepted by unanimous vote of council members.

But two protests were considered, these having been filed by George L. Bates. A protest filed by Eva Barnett was read but was not considered in the proceedings as it had not been filed until the morning of March 17.

Bates declared that a good many property owners were represented in his protests, although their names were not signed to them. Bates charged that the notice of intention was faulty and said that it was very clear that the law provided that the assessments should be made according to the benefits received.

Bates also asked in his protests that the city council individually and personally be held liable for the cost of the improvement. In one of the protests Bates asked for a reduction on the assessments made on his ranch property and on his lots in the city.

Dearing said that an opportunity had been afforded those in the assessment district to call attention to any defects at the time of the notice of award was given. He declared that Bates' protest was too general in form to form a basis of appeal. He also stated that cases of similar street improvements have been sustained and upheld where ad valorem assessment is made.

Dan Gruwell, rancher in the district, asked why the meeting had been called. Mayor Clement said that it had been called as a matter of courtesy and that the drain project had been handled in accordance with the law.

Bates declared that the council could act on a technically or could answer the protests made in good faith.

Verbal protests were entered by a number of those who crowded the council chamber. J. C. McDonald told council members that the drain was of no value to him as he had his own drainage system, his own water plant and that his ranch was both in the city of Santa Ana and the city of Orange.

Clement stated that 50 per cent of the people in the district created by the drain but that the drain was a necessary and general improvement which had been handled as the North Cambridge street drain had been handled.

Clarence Waller, East Collins avenue entered a verbal protest, declaring that the city assessor had placed a valuation of $3000 more on his property than the county had done and that no water from his property entered the drain. He also complained that the city road graders had on occasions covered his water meter box, causing him to pay $2 instead of $1 as the meter reader had been unable to locate the box.

J. V. Meehan also entered a verbal protest, stating that he did not think it was just or equitable to assess a district not benefited by an improvement.

Mayor Clement said that a drainage district could not be established just for those who were actually benefited by the drain and in answering a protest voiced by Morris Jensen on the large size of the catch basin placed on South Lemon street, called attention to the fact that no real flood water had been seen here for the past six years and declared that he hoped to see a rain soon which will fill the basin.

"I Endorse Your Attitude Against Spitting"

Says

DR. JOHN L. LAVAN

Commissioner of Health, City of Toledo, Ohio

...one of 56 health officials from 56 different points approving Cremo's crusade against spit or spit-tipping.

Every smoker, every wife whose husband smokes cigars, should read Dr. Lavan's letter.

"Who are the friends of 'Spit'?"

YOU MAY WELL ASK THIS QUESTION WHEN 56 IMPORTANT HEALTH OFFICIALS HAVE WRITTEN SO STRONGLY AGAINST THE EVILS OF SPIT OR SPIT-TIPPING.

Dr. Lavan writes: "I...endorse the service you are rendering by warning the public against the common nuisances of spitting."

The war against spit is a crusade of decency. Join it...Smoke Certified Cremo—a really wonderful smoke—mild—mellow—nut-sweet! Every leaf entering the clean, sunny Cremo factories is scientifically treated by methods recommended by the United States Department of Agriculture.

July 19, 1930

Gentlemen:

I can heartily endorse your attitude against the spitting rule. I refer to your advertisements against the "spit-tipping method" in the manufacture of cigars. There can be no doubt that spitting, whether it be in a manufacturer's establishment, in the public highways or elsewhere, is dangerous, and contributes a great part in the spread of diseases.

I do not wish to recommend your product over that of any other manufacturer, but only wish to endorse the service you are rendering by warning the public against the common nuisances of spitting.

You may make public use of this letter if you so wish.

Very truly yours,

John L. Lavan, M.D.
Commissioner of Health.

Cortelyou Reveals Plan To Widen Coast Highway

TELLS DETAILS OF PROJECT TO BOOSTER GROUP

Plans for providing a wider and improved boulevard along Orange county's "coast o' gold" all the way from Seal Beach to San Clemente were told to members and friends of the Orange County Coast association at their meeting at the new Newport harbor union high school last night, by S. V. Cortelyou, division engineer of the state highway commission.

Three new bridges will be included in the program to be undertaken at once, Cortelyou said. One will span Anaheim bay at Seal Beach, another the Santa Ana river just west of Newport Beach and another will carry the Coast highway over upper Newport bay. All will be of modern design, 44 feet wide and so constructed that they may easily be widened if and when traffic demands it.

The bridge over upper Newport bay will be about 700 feet south of the present bridge, the road between the Arches crossing and Corona del Mar being straightened and widened. It will be 18 feet above mean low water and 12.9 feet above mean high water, the engineer said.

The state department also is proceeding with plans for the overhead crossing at the intersection of the Coast road and Newport boulevard, known as the Arches crossing. It is hoped, Cortelyou stated, that plans may be worked out between the state department, the city of Newport Beach and Orange county whereby this project will be started this year.

The overhead crossing is one of the projects in this county known as "co-operative projects," that is, those in which part of the cost must be paid by the cities or counties or communities through which the roads run. Other co-operative projects are the widening of the Coast highway between Corona del Mar and Laguna Beach and between Laguna Beach and Dana Point.

Damascus is declared to be the oldest city in the world now in existence, flourishing in 1913 B. C., and mentioned in Genesis, II, 10, of the Chaldees where Abraham was a boy, existed 3000 years B. C., but has been in ruins for centuries.

FARM CENTER HEARS REPORT
ABOUT WATER

Reports of Director George Kellogg, an illustrated lecture on Southern Europe by H. E. Wahlberg, farm advisor, a report of activities of the water committee and a resume of senate bill 225 and assembly bill 1861 by A. J. Olsen, were features of the Yorba Linda Farm center meeting held Monday evening at the Women's clubhouse, with 75 in attendance.

The business session followed a Spanish dinner served by Mrs. Carmen Adams and members of her Americanization class at Atwood.

Kellogg's report included information on the formation of the Santa Ana Basin Water Rights Protective association, which is now working to collect funds to fight interests taking water from this basin to one below; the fire hazard and contest suggested by W. M. Cory to help eliminate fire hazards in the rural districts; and a notice to the effect that compensation insurance would be raised from the present cost of $2.74 per $100 to $4.01.

Mrs. P. M. Gibbs, of the tax research department of the California Farm Bureau Federation told of her work in Orange county, which is to make a complete investigation of the cost of county roads for the past 10 years, with the idea that future cost should be cut down.

A. J. Olsen, who has been appointed chairman of the legislative committee by President Marshall, gave a resume of a bill designed to create a water district in Orange county, introduced by Assemblyman Ted Craig. J. E. Lewis reported on the Farm Bureau water committee, and also on the committee which is to investigate the alleged pollution of water-bearing strata by oil wells. Lewis for several years has protested against the situation and stated that the larger and more responsible companies used care in this matter but that others did not. Lewis, who is superintendent of the Yorba Linda Water company, showed a chart of the wells, showing the fall in the water level for some years past.

RESERVE CORPS OF MARINES IS TO BE FORMED

A reserve company of marines is to be formed in Orange county, according to an announcement made today by First Lieutenant George L. Ball and First Lieutenant Floyd W. Howard, of the Marine Reserve corps.

Following is a statement made by the officers on the subject: "Orange county has been selected in which to form a company of United States Marine Reserves. Orange county is the only county in the state besides San Francisco and Los Angeles counties so selected.

"The organization of such a company of reservists is a step in organized national defense. It is the intent of the Marine corps to accept only those men that possess the physical, mental and moral qualifications to fill commissioned or non-commissioned ranks in time of war. The Marine corps makes its officers out of enlisted men or graduates from the naval academy, and therefore only very highest type of men are to be selected for this unit.

"True to Marine corps policies, play and social activities will have a large part in this unit, although duty to the company must be paramount.

"The Marine corps will issue through its quartermaster full equipment and uniforms. Requirements of enlistment will be that everyone must enlist for four years. Drill will be held once each month with a 15-day summer camp either at the Marine base or aboard some battleship.

"Members of the reserve corps will do all of the things done by the regular Marine, drilling, rifle and machine gun practice, etc.

"The first ones to enlist will have the better chance of becoming officers in the organization."

J. L. Marron, 38, of San Diego, and Joe Areyno, 32, arrested in connection with the cutting scrape at Talbert on Sunday night, in which Arguillo Ortiz, Mexican, was badly cut about the arms, were released from the county jail yesterday afternoon. Deputy sheriffs who made the arrest stated there was not enough evidence against the men to charge them with the crime. Ortiz is still in the county hospital but refuses to talk about the case, it was said.

PREPARE FOR EBELL DISPLAY

As Ebelle society members, particularly those of the Garden section, devote their time and attention to plans for the annual Spring Flower show to be held in the clubhouse April 9 and 10, amateur and professional gardeners of the community will be interested in learning details regarding the premiums to be offered, and the rules governing the entries.

Since the show is to open to the public at 4 o'clock on Thursday afternoon, April 9, all flowers to be exhibited either in the awards class or the decorative, must be properly entered and in place by noon of that day, according to rules issued by the Garden section and Mrs. W. E. Watkins, section leader.

Mrs. Watkins has stressed the fact that there are no entrance fees, as many inquiries have been made regarding this feature. Flowers entered for the prize awards must be in containers furnished by the exhibitors. All roses will be judged in accordance with the rules of the American Rose society, and the blue ribbon will denote first place, red second place, and gold, honorable mention.

Section A will be reserved for amateur rose growers and the first prize will be the competitive cup awarded for the best collection of roses, not less than 12 varieties nor more than three blooms of a kind. Pottery will form the second and third prizes. REPORT HEAVY DEMANDS UPON WELFARE BODY

Demands for assistance from the Orange county department of social welfare are still increasing, it was stated today by Walter S. Gregg, director of the department, in commenting on the report for February, which was filed yesterday.

Relief expenditures by the department during the month reached a total of $10,567.44, of which $7949.08 was spent on white cases and $2618.36 on Mexican families, Gregg pointed out, stating that this would show that his department was not feeding all Mexicans as some persons have claimed.

During the month 143 men with families, from various parts of the county, were given employment on county road work, and 23 places for house workers were found through efforts of the employment division of the department.

A number of persons coming into the state from Oklahoma, Texas, Colorado and other eastern points were advised by the department to return to their homes, Gregg said, so that they would not lose their residence privileges in those states to meet welfare requirements. They were advised further that it was not possible to keep them here. "California and Orange county is all that it is advertised," the welfare director said, "but you cannot live on climate and there is no work yet for newcomers."

Heavy loads are being carried in all divisions of the department, Gregg asserted. There are 108 cases in the children's division; 113 cases in the old age division, and 142 new cases in the welfare, or charity division during February.

Book Review Section Has Interesting Meeting

An interesting meeting was shared yesterday afternoon by members of the First Book Review section of the club who met in the clubhouse lounge. Hostesses were Mrs. S. W. Nau, Mrs. C. P. Boyer and Mrs. J. P. Hatfield. Bouquets of bright-hued flowers were artistically arranged to form a background for the affair.

"Years of Grace" by Margaret Ayre Barnes was reviewed by Mrs. Frank Peterson. In entertaining manner she told of the absorbing book, and something as well of its author. She told how the author has written for the past five years, and how her first recognition came in 1928 when she dramatized Edith Wharton's "Age of Innocence."

Moav Club Completes Plans For Party

Meeting in the home of Miss Jane Cunningham, 1208 North Van Ness avenue, members of Santa Ana Junior college Moav club made final preparations for the afternoon bridge party which the club is giving next Saturday afternoon in the home of Miss Zena Leck at Laguna Beach, as a benefit for the women's service club.

At the conclusion of the meeting Japanese refreshments were served by the hostess, Miss Cunningham.

Members present were the Misses Eleanor Wisner, Maybelle Ball, Marie McGinnis, Gladys Early, Geraldine Cole, Vernelle Butler, Velma Witt, Edith Bailey, Evelyn Parks, Elizabeth Rinkler, Joanna Day, Helen Estock, Louella Marshall, Kathleen Covern, Ruth Brubaker and the advisor, Miss Zena Leck and the hostess, Miss Cunningham.

Ninetieth Birthday Is Observed Quietly By Mrs. Crookshank

So seldom is one privileged to aid in the celebration of a ninety-ninth birthday anniversary, that the fact that Mrs. M. M. Crookshank on Monday joined the limited ranks of the nonagenarians, was awaited by members of her family circle and the close friends that knew of the date's significance, with a marked degree of interest.

During the afternoon, many of these friends called informally to offer their congratulations to Mrs. Crookshank, joining with members of her family in making the day memorable with quantities of beautiful flowers and more intimate birthday remembrances. Miss Lida Crookshank of the home, assisted her mother in welcoming these old friends, and during the afternoon added to the charm and hospitality, by serving tea very informally, assisted by Mrs. Angus J. Crookshank and Mrs. C. S. Crookshank.

The senior Mrs. Crookshank has been in frail health for a number of years since the regrettable accident of breaking her hip, otherwise far more ambitious plans would have been made for celebrating the anniversary with "open house" for her host of friends. For her more than 40 years of residence in this city, she has gained her unusually wide circle of friends all of whom would have been delighted to share in a more general celebration of the day had such a thing been possible.

The family came to Santa Ana from Gladbrook, Iowa, and had lived for many years in Linn county, Iowa. The late Mr. Crookshank was a banker both in his native and in his adopted state, his business in which his sons followed his example. For exactly 30 of the more than 40 years since coming to Santa Ana, Mrs. Crookshank has lived in the home at 802 French street, where she and Miss Lida Crookshank still reside and which today, blooms like a Southland garden with the flowers by which friends expressed their interest and congratulations.

ARTISTIC SETTING IS GIVEN WRYCENDE MAEGDENU DINNER

Just a short five years ago a little group of the city's younger business girls met to form the Wrycende Maegden club of the Y. W. C. A., with Miss Nancy Elder as advisor, and it was in observance of this springtime birthday that 60 members of the club gathered last evening for the anniversary dinner at Hotel Laguna in "Our Village". From a struggling organization of eight girls, with no meeting place save the old Y. W. rooms, the club has grown to one of over half a hundred members who hold weekly sessions in the lovely new rooms on East Fifth street.

Among those present were several honorary and charter members, and of the latter group, Miss Dorothy Beckman, an active worker of the club, presided as toastmistress following the banquet. The hotel dining room, colorful and picturesque with its walls lined with paintings by world famous artists, afforded a charming setting for the 7 o'clock dinner. Tables were arranged in T fashion, and decked with delicate spring flowers and ferns.

Program Theme
Miss Dorothy Dresser, president of the club, presented Miss Beckman, who gave a delightful little opening talk, introducing the chosen theme, "Patterns." Miss Ruth Potter followed with a toast to "Simple Patterns," telling briefly of the early club days and the early meeting place. Violin solos were given by Miss Dorothy Lutz, accompanied at the piano by Miss Lida Crookshank.

Miss Gertrude Jentges' toast to "Intricate Patterns" was a poetic description of the shadows cast by the patterns ever branching from, but always holding to, the original one. Miss Mabel Pruitt's toast to "Beautiful Patterns" was truly an inspirational one. Following a vocal solo by Miss Evelyn Springmeyer, accompanied at the piano by Miss Carol Erskine, Miss Elder read a poem, "A Legend of Service." The dinner meeting was concluded with group singing of "Follow the Glean."

Adjoining to the pleasant sun room, an evening of games and music was enjoyed. With its conclusion it was found that Mrs. Dora Lutz and Miss Lucille Bernmann held first and second high honors. Those present included the Misses Louise Bryant, Vena Belle Bryant, Wilma Moehr, Dorothy Dresser, Louise Proctor, Gladys Stoneman, Charlene Swartz, Dorothy Lutz, Dorothy Beckman, Monta Currie, Genevieve Fisher, Audrey Chastain, Boyd Joplin, Mabel Miller, Evelyn Springmeyer, Katherine Spicer, Bessie Bell Wall, Beulah Dugan, Margaret Gabe, Betty Wiswall, Mabel Pruitt, Viola Olliphant, Lucille Bernmann.

Court Procedure Is Explained For Clubwomen

"A Day in Court" provided an interesting program theme for Santa Ana Woman's club members yesterday afternoon at their semi-monthly meeting in the Congregational bungalow, and proved to be extremely educational for those who had not informed themselves upon the general working plan of local, state and national court procedure.

Mrs. W. H. Kuhn, president of the club, gave the meeting over to Miss Octavia Goldworthy, who as program chairman of the afternoon, had arranged with Attorney Charles Swanner to address the clubwomen.

Speaking informally but authoritatively, the well-known local attorney outlined court procedure from the city or police court to the Supreme Court of the United States, pointing out the cases that were heard in each separate division. Misdeamors and infractions of city ordinances involving a $500 fine or a six months' jail sentence are those tried in city or police courts, he explained, declaring that few cases outside of immediate city were tried beyond perhaps liquor cases.

Civil and criminal cases involving large sums and severe penalties find their way to the justice's court, while the superior court (part of the state judiciary system although its judges are elected locally) involves land titles, domestic differences, and the contesting of wills, together with kindred cases which demand trial by jury.

The district court of appeals with its three judges, and the superior court with seven judges, were described in turn, while the federal supreme court deals largely with questions of citizenship. Bankruptcy, court procedure in settling estates, and the making of wills, were all touched upon by the speaker, and in the interval immediately following his talk, he was asked many questions which brought out points that further illuminated various legal matters for the interested audience.

It seemed appropriate that the roll call which followed, should be on the same general theme, and many of the women repeated amusing or dramatic details of experiences while doing duty service or appearing as witnesses.

Plans were completed for the social afternoon of Tuesday, March 31, when Mrs. W. C. Watkins will open her home to members and their friends, for a benefit tea for the Orange County preventorium. An invitation is extended to the general public to attend this affair and enjoy an informal program with the hostess organization, Mrs. Taylor Johnson will sing and there will be readings and various musical features. Mrs. Joseph Thurston, president of the county federation, will be among the special guests, who also will include all past presidents of the club and the new members received during the year.

Mrs. W. A. West, county chairman of the World War veterans, read several appreciative letters from disabled veterans at Sawtelle, and reports were given of various Woman's club members who are ill, including Mrs. L. W. Bouldin and Mrs. M. J. Marks.

Quill Pen Clubwomen Greet Interesting Guests

The presence of three special guests, Miss Margaret Livingston, Orange county librarian; Mrs. Mabel F. Paulkner, librarian at Orange and Miss Aurelia Koch, former teacher of languages in Santa Ana schools, added undoubted interest to last night's meeting of Quill Pen club members in the home of Mrs. R. A. Cushman on North Broadway, for the guests gave the advantage of their official abilities and their conversance with literary matters, to the spirited discussions which followed the reading of each story on the evening's program.

To members of the club, these criticisms offer one of the most valuable features of the meetings, and it was considered doubly valuable to have suggestions from such guests as those present last night. There were several manuscripts to be critiqued by this. Mrs. R. H. Winchester read the first, a gay little tale of the doings of a young married set in "Suburbia," whose episodic adventures she has recounted from time to time, to the enjoyment of the Quill Pen wielders. The current story she titled "Sweet Revenge," and it was heard with the same interest that might be given to an amusing experience in the lives of one's close friends.

Mrs. J. F. Adams followed with "Stairs to Nowhere," an appealing story of feminine actions and reactions which seemed to her audience, to be within the experience of so many young women that it might have a strong appeal to magazine readers. The program closed with a short story based on a magazine advertisement, read by Eleanor Young Elliott.

The remainder of the evening was given over to discussions of the three program features and of writing in general, with a few business matters introduced by the president, Mrs. Marshall Harnois. Among the latter, was the invitation which Mrs. Harnois read, from Sumner Crosby of Laguna Beach, to a dinner complimenting S. S. McClure, "editor, publisher, lecturer and philosopher." This dinner, which is open to every one interested in any phase of writing or publishing, is to be given by the Writers' Colony of Laguna Beach, on Friday night at 8 o'clock in Casa Chez Aubert, on the Coast boulevard, south, at Pearl street.

"My Personal Experiences as an Editor," will provide the distinguished honor guest with a lecture subject that promises both entertainment and interest to the dinner guests. His daughter, Miss McClure, will share guest honors with her distinguished father.

At the conclusion of the program and business interval of last night, Mrs. Cushman, assisted by Miss Dorothy Clarkson, Mrs. Herman Reuter and Mrs. Frank Was, served a salad and sandwich refreshment course, using individual trays upon which the seasonal St. Patrick motif was suggested by green candles and green shamrocks, adorning delicious little loaves.

Sharing her hospitality in addition to the three special guests and those on the program, were Mrs. Harnois, president; Mrs. H. Smith, Mrs. Blanche Brown, Mrs. Maude Goff, Miss Lella Watson, Mrs. Frank J. Was, Mrs. Herman Reuter, Miss Dorothy Clarkson and Mrs. J. D. Campbell. Mrs. Campbell will entertain in two weeks, in her home on South Pepper street, Orange.

St. Patrick's Party Is Colorful Affair Of Last Evening

The refreshing motif of St. Patrick's day has lent itself well to a variety of parties during the past few weeks, and among the loveliest of these was one given last night with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Van Beek entertaining in their home, 1128 South Broadway.

Colorful bouquets of sweet peas, stocks and bachelor buttons were arranged to form a setting for the evening of bridge. When scores were checked on the clever little tallies, prizes were awarded Mrs. Dick Hawkins and Mrs. Patrick Murphy for scoring high; Mrs. John Vernon and Carl Opp, second high, and Mrs. Opp and Mr. Hawkins, low.

Replacing card table covers with attractive linens, Mrs. Van Beek served a tempting two course supper carrying out her appointments with green glassware. Dainty clover favors added to the effective theme, completed by the menu itself.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Vernon, Mr. and Mrs. William Dyer, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Hawkins, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Opp and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Van Beek.

Mrs. Claude Killen Wedded Recently In Ukiah

Of interest to a wide circle of friends in this city, will be news of the marriage in Ukiah on Saturday, February 28, of Mrs. Mary Louise Killen, formerly of Santa Ana, to Vincent Tartaglia of Ukiah.

Santa Ana friends of the bride have received formal announcements of the marriage within the past few days. The bride was very well known here, where she was popular in the young married set. Her first husband, the late Claude Killen, was a member of the city council and was in the automobile business, a member of the firm of Killen-Miles Automobile company. His death took place in Santa Ana about half a dozen years ago.

Shortly after that, Mrs. Killen was in the ready-to-wear department of the Rankin Dry Goods store, leaving Santa Ana to open her own business place in Ukiah where she established a small but very smart sports shop for women, in which she has attained a signal success.

Honorary Society Has Initiatory Rites At Meeting

Featured by initiation speeches of three new members and a discussion of current problems in the educational and industrial world, the regular monthly meeting of the Beta Gamma honorary society at Santa Ana Junior college was held last night in the home of Miss Marjorie Parsons at 106 East Chestnut street.

Miss Maybelle Ball, president of the extra-curricular society, opened the meeting with a discussion of the prize to be given by the organization to the student who is determined to have offered the most service to the school. This award will be presented at graduation every year and will be based primarily on extra-curricular activities and scholarship.

Initiation talks were then given by three new members, Miss Elva Cook, Miss Helen Hendricks and Calvin Stillwell. Ray Giesner who also was voted into the club recently, was unable to be at the meeting because of illness. Miss Cook spoke on the subject, "What is Wrong With the Campus." Miss Hendricks discussed the benefits of athletics for the college woman and Calvin Stillwell explained the purpose and history of the discussion groups of the Jaycee Y. M. C. A.

D. K. Hammond, president of the college, gave an informal talk on present day problems in education, followed by a general round table discussion on education, commerce, the present business depression, unemployment and other questions.

At the close of the meeting, Miss Parsons served cake and coffee with the Misses Ball, Hendricks and Cook assisting. Those who enjoyed the affair were the Misses Marian Parsons, Maybelle Ball, Goldie Peale, Elva Cook, Helen Hendricks, Messrs. Wayne Flinn, Warren Schutz, Cardwell Oglesby, John "Ski" Dunlap, Calvin Stillwell and Mr. and Mrs. John Tessimann, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Nealley and D. K. Hammond. Mrs. Tessimann and Mr. Nealley are faculty advisors of the organization.

Surprise Dinner Held For Mr. Curtis

A delightful dinner was held Monday night in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Burt Sutton, 803 Oak street, when Mrs. Sutton and her sister, Mrs. Alvin Burns, of Laguna Beach, entertained relatives in observance of the birthday anniversary of their father, E. R. Curtis, of 222 South Main street. Mr. Curtis had forgotten that the day was his natal anniversary and when Mrs. Curtis suggested that they call on their daughter for the evening, he was surprised to find other relatives there and a delicious dinner awaiting them. A low bowl of daisies centered the table, and a feature of the last course was an angel food cake, iced in pink and topped with tiny pink candles.

The evening hours were pleasantly passed with conversation and music, and the guest of honor was presented with many gifts. Places at dinner were indicated for Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Curtis, Thomas Watts, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Burns and daughter and son, Miss Marjorie Burns and Curtis Burns, Laguna Beach, and Mr. and Mrs. Burt Sutton and daughter, Miss Valerie Sutton, of this city.

Eight and Forty Has Second Meeting

The second meeting since they were organized was held Monday evening by members of the Eight and Forty who gathered in the home of Mrs. Blanche Young and Miss Gladys Young, 420 Eastside avenue. Dinner was served at 6:30 o'clock, with table appointments carrying out the St. Patrick's theme.

Glorified Baked Beans

I know a clever woman who is famous among her friends for the grand baked beans she brings to picnics. "Pickpocketing" her mind one day for the recipe, I could not help but be impressed with how little she knew of the method of preparing her beans.

Finally, she broke down and told me that she used canned baked beans to start with, but after she got through adding things to them not even the can they came out of would know them. I thought that was clever, and asked her if she objected to having her method published. So here it is:

For six people buy two large cans of baked beans, about 1/2 pound of fat bacon and a can of tomato hot sauce. Chop very fine 1 rounded tablespoonful of onion, mix through the beans, put them in a shallow buttered casserole or tin pan, pour the tomato sauce over them, lay the strips of bacon over the top, and press some shorter pieces down around the sides of the pan. Bake in a medium hot oven 1 hour.

TODAY'S RECIPE

Orange Tapioca Cream

5 tablespoons instant tapioca
1/2 cup sugar
2 eggs, white beaten separately
Pinch of salt
1 quart milk
1/2 teaspoon orange extract
1/2 teaspoon lemon extract
Sections from 4 oranges
This is such a good dessert for Sunday dinner. It can be prepared on Saturday evening and put in the refrigerator until dinner time.

Heat the milk in a double boiler until it bubbles. Add the quick cooking tapioca, sugar and salt, and stir until the tapioca is cooked into the milk—about 15 minutes' cooking.

Separate the eggs, first beating the whites stiff, then transferring the beater to the yolks and beating them to a thick cream. Take a cup of the hot tapioca mixture and mix it with the yolks, then this in turn with the hot tapioca. Stir until the yolks are cooked and the cream as thick as it will get. Take from the fire and whip in about half of the beaten whites, add the flavoring extracts and pour the pudding over the sections of orange arranged in a shallow baking dish. For the meringue use the rest of the beaten whites, adding powdered sugar to taste. Spread over the pudding and brown under the broiler flame. Chill well.

This pudding will serve a large family. The calories total 1650. Over half this total is found in the fine proteins (eggs and milk) the tapioca and sugar supply the energy makers, and the oranges supply the alkalines needed for digestion.

Do you know how to make a "Noodle Charlotte"? If you'd like to, just send a stamped, self-addressed envelope and the free leaflet for the week, "Meat Substitutes", will come back to you. It gives 12 other very good Meat Substitute recipes.

If you are dieting you will need an accurate CALORY LIST. Just slip in an extra 2-cent stamp when you send for this week's leaflet and the list will be sent along at the same time. It gives calory values for average portions of 330 different kinds of food.

I had a Potato Souffle for dinner recently; it was so good I am using it for tomorrow's lesson.

BIG PREVIEW AT FOX BROADWAY AT 8 O'CLOCK

A Universal preview, starring Lew Ayres, star of "All Quiet on the Western Front" and "The Doorway to Hell," will be seen at 8 o'clock tonight at the Fox Broadway theater in conjunction with the regular feature, "Sit Tight," starring Winnie Lightner and Joe E. Brown.

The name of the preview is a secret, this being the custom of showing previews in Southern California, but information has been procured which shows that Jean Harlow, dainty little star of "Hell's Angels" and Robert Armstrong have the other important roles in the cast.

The picture is of the type of "The Doorway to Hell" so far as can be learned here and with the stars the picture boasts, is sure to be one of the big Universal productions, according to Norman Sprowl, Fox theater manager.

Today marks the last day of showing for "Sit Tight," the sterling comedy which has been playing at the theater for the past several days. Joe Brown as "Jojo, the Tiger," a wrestler, keeps the audience howling throughout, while Winnie Lightner as his manager and as the head of a health institute, makes the picture one of the funniest that has been seen here this year.

JACK OAKIE HERE IN "JUNE MOON"

"June Moon," with wise-cracking Jack Oakie in his latest feature picture, opens at the Fox West Coast theater today for only two days. Efforts to get the picture here for a longer run than two days were unavailing, according to Norman Sprowl, Fox theater manager.

The picture succeeds "Caught Short" and "The Naughty Flirt," which has been playing at the theater for the past two days.

Due to the big demand made throughout Southern California for Jack Oakie pictures, managers have been having trouble in booking them all, Sprowl said, and when he got an opportunity to show the picture here for two days only, he took it, he said.

"June Moon" shows Oakie as the bashful lover who wins his girl in the end, but not until after a number of embarrassing scenes for him. Good comedy, a smart dialogue and modern background make the picture particularly interesting.

NEWS AND NOTES MICKEY MOUSE CLUB for BOYS AND GIRLS

"Peter Pan," one of the greatest children's pictures that was ever made, and which won high awards several years ago when it was first shown, will be the feature motion picture attractions at the Fox West Coast theater Saturday, for the Santa Ana Mickey Mouse club.

A., California Motion Pictures association and other women's organizations, new prints were made to be shown to Mickey Mouse clubs throughout the country.

"Peter Pan" is the kind of a picture that every child in the country will enjoy—a film that every Santa Ana child will talk about for weeks to come.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Yost and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Yost, of Huntington Beach; Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Ladd and Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Ladd of Fullerton; Mrs. McKay, Mr. and Mrs. Mansperger and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Enos, of Midway City.

Mrs. B. F. Henderson, who has been very ill at her home, is reported as improved.

THE TINYMITES

STORY BY MAI COCHRAN—PICTURES BY KNICK
REG. U. S. PAT. OFF.

The truck was shortly safe and sound upon the big ship, Bombay bound. The whistle of the big boat then began to toot real loud. "Come on," exclaimed the Travel Man. And up the gangplank they all ran. The boat pulled out and with it took a very happy crowd. "Where are our staterooms?" Cloway said. "I hope I have a nice soft bed. I love to sleep while sailing out across the deep blue sea." "Right down this way," a bellhop said. "And you will find a dandy bed. When you crawl in I'm sure that you'll be comfy as can be."

It wasn't long till every one was settled. "Gee, but this is fun," said Scouty. Let's go out on deck and see what we can find." They shortly met the captain who said, "I'll do all I can for you." And, all the time they were on board he certainly was kind.

"Twas far from Durban to Bombay and they were long upon their way, but every minute was enjoyed, 'cause there was heaps to do. All day they played and strolled around. At night each Tinymite slept sound. The weather for the trip was great. The sky remained clear blue.

And then Bombay came into sight, which made wee Scouty Tinymite cry out, "Hurray! We'll shortly land. I know we'll like Bombay. I've heard that it is quaint and gee, that sort of thing appeals to me." The boat then docked and down the gangplank they were on their way.

They drove up into town and then jumped from their chugging truck again. "We'll park it here and look around," the Travel Man explained. Up in an open square they found a flock of pigeons on the ground. The Tinies saw so many that their eyes were almost strained.

2. Change but one letter at a glance and be sure the word you have used is one in good usage.

3. The order of the letters cannot be changed.

Santa Ana high school players aren't using the new raised-earm baseball. Coach Bill Foote says his charges are having hard enough time belting the old one. "Anyway," says Foote, "there isn't any difference in the spheres. The new goes as far and as hard as the old one."

When Mrs. Albert Gracely leaves Sunday for her home in Des Moines, Ia., after a pleasant visit in this city, she will take with her an array of dainty handkerchiefs presented her by friends who gathered yesterday afternoon in the home of her daughter, Mrs. John J. Mills, 1107 West First street. Mrs. Gracely was delightedly surprised to receive the pretty remembrances.

Early afternoon hours were spent in playing games suggestive of old Ireland. The hostess then served a two-course tea menu at a table prettily decorated with the popular green and white color scheme.

Those present, other than the honoree, Mrs. Gracely were Mrs. Harry Becker, Mrs. Merle Taylor, Mrs. Roland Montgomery, Mrs. Dale Elliott, Mrs. James Mills, and the hostess, Mrs. John J. Mills.

Bridge Club Meets For Dinner In Stowe Home

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Stowe entertained last night in their home on West First street when they were hosts to members of the Sup and Chatter club. Dinner was served as a prelude to an evening of cards. The St. Patrick motif was evidenced throughout the evening.

In the bridge games, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wessman scored high and Mr. and Mrs. John Turtan, low.

Those present were Messrs. Arthur Medames, Roy Gowdy, Arthur Achey, Carl Wessman, John Turtan, Ray Montgomery and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Stowe.

Home Builders' Class

Business was quickly dispensed with last evening when members of the Home Builders' class of the First Christian church met in the church parlors, with John J. Mills presiding. The remainder of the evening was devoted to a St. Patrick's party. Games were in charge of Mrs. A. W. Sanford, and many were the stunts and contests enjoyed by those assembled. The hostess committee included Mrs. A. W. Sanford, Mrs. T.

At any rate, with Scott and Phil Schrott both on hand, the Stars are sure to be well fixed even if Daley and Hunter are not available. And if Daley and Hunter do play here, the club will carry fine reserve strength.

LEGISLATION FOR SCHOOLS IS DISCUSSED

Pending legislation and methods of accounting were subjects which were prominent on the program of the annual convention of California Public School Business Officials association, held last week in Fresno, according to Elizabeth H. Phillips, secretary to the Santa Ana board of education, who has returned from the meeting.

The act proposing that board of supervisors shall have the power to revise school district budgets will be a great detriment to the advancement of education, Vierling Kersey, state superintendent of public instruction told the officials. Miss Phillips reported. He also stressed the importance of giving attention to the elementary education program, she said, which he stated was neglected in this era of expansion of secondary education, centering on junior colleges, high schools and junior high schools.

Recommendation that all budget divisions be kept under standard headings as set up by the U. S. Bureau of accounting for school districts, of which Miss Phillips was a member, reported to the convention that the state department of education should classify school districts, so that accounting systems could be worked out that would apply. The committee investigations revealed that one-half of the elementary districts of the state employed only one teacher, and that three-fourths of the elementary districts employed less than three teachers. After the districts are classified, systems will be devised to fit their needs, covering such accounting practices as overhead, interest, etc., and differentiating between supplies and equipment, repairs and improvements.

The program of the convention next year will stress administrative control and sources of financial support.

Track Meet To Be Close Saturday

oldest of all, "Hap" Walker of Hemet cleared 5 feet, 11 1/4 inches back in 1924 and nobody has ever beaten it. Captain Jacques of Santa Ana can, as he has proved several times already this season, but whether he does Saturday remains, of course, to be seen.

Leonard Murray, San Diego's captain, may gallop to a new record in the 850, especially if Cartwright and others extend him to the limit of his ability. The existing mark of 2:24 is six years old.

All of the others, shown below, appear reasonably secure against the attack of the 1931 crop of athletes:

59b Groves, Orchards

Grove Buyers Take Heed
An orange grower in financial difficulties is selling his grove and usually his trouble is the result of circumstances other than the ownership of a grove.
We have one of these rare cases and the owner has asked us to procure an immediate sale where-in he will receive $15,000 cash.
An inspection of his twenty acres will show about seventeen acres of Valencia oranges, and an excellent crop of fruit estimated at better than 3500 boxes of particularly large size. Also a few acres of lemons and a small grove of pomegranates. A one-half interest in an irrigation plant goes with the land.
This grove has been appraised at anywhere from $50,000 up. There is a first encumbrance of $15,000. Buy about one and one-half years. We can, on a down payment of $15,000 and subject of course, to prior sale, deliver this twenty acres with its valuable crop of fruit for $34,000, and the difference between the down payment and the existing encumbrance can be handled by a second trust deed. On this basis, after returns from present crop are deducted, we predict that the grove will actually cost the fortunate buyer considerably less than $1500 per acre, not much more than bare land prices. And on that ridiculously small cost we further predict that the place is capable of producing greater returns on the investment than any high priced grove you might care to mention. All that the situation requires is a buyer who knows grove values, who can recognize an extremely profitable transaction when he sees it; and who will qualify with the necessary $15,000. Incidentally, we did not specify the amount of the down payment. THAT IS WHAT HIS BANKERS TELL THE OWNER HE POSITIVELY MUST HAVE. If interested, a certain amount of clarity on your part will be the proper thing. Ask for C. Sidnam.

This grove has been appraised at anywhere from $50,000 up. There is a first encumbrance of $15,000. Buy about one and one-half years. We can, on a down payment of $15,000 and subject of course, to prior sale, deliver this twenty acres with its valuable crop of fruit for $34,000, and the difference between the down payment and the existing encumbrance can be handled by a second trust deed. On this basis, after returns from present crop are deducted, we predict that the grove will actually cost the fortunate buyer considerably less than $1500 per acre, not much more than bare land prices. And on that ridiculously small cost we further predict that the place is capable of producing greater returns on the investment than any high priced grove you might care to mention. All that the situation requires is a buyer who knows grove values, who can recognize an extremely profitable transaction when he sees it; and who will qualify with the necessary $15,000. Incidentally, we did not specify the amount of the down payment. THAT IS WHAT HIS BANKERS TELL THE OWNER HE POSITIVELY MUST HAVE. If interested, a certain amount of clarity on your part will be the proper thing. Ask for C. Sidnam.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 18

Reversed Fortunes
(Read Luke 16:19-31.)

Remember that thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things; but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented.

The rich man had noticed the sick beggar laid at his gate. He recognizes him too late, and even knows his name. Now that their positions are reversed he asks a favor of Lazarus, to whom he never showed kindness. Must we all, sooner or later, learn what it is to suffer. And what it is to need a friend? Somehow, somewhere the inequities of life are to be righted. That does not mean that we should rest contented with present conditions in the assurance of future adjustment. It means rather a condemnation of present conditions. Those who selfishly enjoy their present plenty are making a terrible mistake. The sick and needy poor are suffering a cruel wrong. Now is the time to right these things, if the Kingdom of God is to come.

PRAYER: O Lord our God, bring to an end the scolding of them that are at ease and the contempt of the proud; forget not the needy, nor let the expectation of the poor perish forever. In his name, who, though he was rich, became poor for our redemption. Amen.

PARENTS' RESPONSIBILITY

A group of people, inspired by the awful so-called "love-mart" revelations have expressed themselves through the columns of one of the morning papers to the effect that if parents knew where their girls are, and where their "extra money" comes from, and had their children's confidence, such dreadful things would not happen.

"The idea of many middle-aged women today seems to be to let their children shift for themselves while they themselves indulged in bridge and gossip," said one.

"Parents are most to blame for such cases," said another. "Why don't they know where their girls are?" asked another.

Another one said: "Parents know whether or not their children are in bad company, if they wish to know!"

Not long ago a juvenile court worker spoke before a group of women in Santa Ana. Someone blamed the parents for the delinquency of children, much as these people have. Heads were nodded in agreement. Then the experienced worker said: But how can you expect parents without normal mental capacity to keep careful watch over their children? Being mentally incapable is the one adequate excuse, before the bar of public opinion, apparently, for not knowing where one's children are, and whom they are with and what experiences they are having. And it follows from that that the parents who do not make a more or less successful effort to know these things about their children are suspected of not having a very high I. Q. Parents, being more cognizant of the difficulties of keeping track of children and youngsters, and the handicaps to exerting some control over them when there seems to be little or none exerted over their companions are more tolerant of the failures of other people. But the less tolerance, really, the better in this particular case.

It is no indication a farmer is domestic merely because he belongs to the sowing circle.

A NEW NEBULA

A nebula, which is traveling 11,000 miles per second away from the earth, has been discovered and photographed by the new 100-inch Mount Wilson telescope. This is at the rate of 6,000 million miles a year, and we are told by those who have photographed this nebula that it is the farthest object from the earth that has ever been seen through a telescope, and if it were driven toward the earth
at the present rate it is traveling away from it, namely 6,000 million miles a year, it would take 120,000,000 years to reach this world.

Now if Einstein's theory is correct and the universe is a sphere, and eventually even the rays of light will come around and reach themselves at the point of departure, then this nebula may eventually strike us in the back of the neck.

But we are not greatly worried, for while it would take 120,000,000 years to come directly to us, it would take a while longer for it to circumnavigate the entire universe and reach us, and by that time, we will probably be speeding on our way ourselves, and keeping ahead of it all the time.

It is difficult to read this and to have a very high degree of respect for the importance of the individual.

Women are poor losers—when it comes to dieting.

HEADACHE SIGN OF BRAINS

Investigators at the University of Illinois, it is reported, are reaching the opinion that headaches are a sign of brains, that the headache is an ailment peculiar to the more intellectual. There have been enough gibes at the people who talk about their operation so that most people have become so reticent about operations that there is an air of mystery about them. But doubtless, if these University of Illinois researchers actually prove this point, many people will be boasting about their headaches, and hoping that of course you have heard that it is a sign of brains.

There is another contention, we learn, that tall people are descended from royalty because the tall and strong held the high places of government in olden times. We say a plague on nobility, whether it is that of the tall, or the short, those with headaches or those with toothaches.

DISTRIBUTION

Reports from the Treasury Department indicate that income tax returns are surprisingly high and that they will not be much below the returns for a year ago. A few days ago, according to reports, it was given out that there had been a tremendous increase in the number of people whose total income had exceeded a million dollars.

Now it appears that the income tax will bring to the government for the year 1930, the most depressing year that America has seen in many years, as much money as was received for 1929, which was supposed to be a year of brisk business up until late October of that year, and even then not a complete depression until about a month later.

This condition is due to the fact that the income tax is derived from those having larger incomes and the percentage of income increases as the total itself increases in volume.
It would indicate that the business depression which has affected employees by the million, and also retail merchants, has not seriously affected those receiving exceedingly large incomes. Of course it is to be recognized that "one swallow does not make a summer,"— that much of the income of the very wealthy comes from dividends, and dividends during 1930 in part came from surplus and not earnings, so that the effect of the depression will show up more in '31 than in '30. But still the class affected, the great mass of folks, have been made poorer, and evidently during this period some have become richer.

Not only is this true, but in view of the fact of falling prices, and that the buying power of the dollar has increased, the increase of income means much more than appears on its face. It may be possible that Mr. Scripps of the Scripps-Howard newspaper organization may have had some fore-knowledge of this condition when, in speaking before the Progressive group in Washington the other day, he warned the country that there must be some way devised by which the masses would be able to purchase the comforts and luxuries, which are available for them, that is,
which have been produced and are existing or could be produced if the idle factories were at work, or this country like other countries, is headed for a government under the control of the "strong man", whether it be a Mussolini or a Lenin.

The people of the United States are a reading people, and the facts as our statisticians present them, are not extremely palatable. Our leaders in industry, economics and political life, must address themselves to the problem of the distribution of goods in this country, in other words—think in terms of humanity. We have been addressing ourselves almost exclusively to the problem of production and of producing cheaply. We can produce cheaply in quantities; we can get along with less and less labor, and the question of the distribution of products is a serious problem before the country.

Pan American Aviation
Oakland Tribune

National and international commercial aviation and the problems arising from rapid growth of air lines on the American continent will be among the topics discussed at the Fourth Pan American Commercial Conference to meet in Washington early in October.

A report from the Pan American Union, made public today, says that it was only about ten years ago that what has been termed "the first successful commercial air service in the world" began operations on the Magdalena river in Colombia, and today there exist on the American continent more than 60,000 miles of air lines in regular operation.

"This figure gives a fair idea of the growth of the industry in its first decade," the report points out, and continues, "It would appear that the next and succeeding decades will also witness a remarkable development, particularly in the classes of services to be offered the public. The fact that aerial facilities grew in a brief period from short, disconnected lines in individual nations, to services connecting the principal cities of many countries, and the fact that operators of air lines were subject to customs and clearance regulations originally designed for steamship services, soon produced an international problem."

In tracing the steps that have been taken by the several American governments to meet this problem in the most satisfactory manner, the report reveals that a convention on commercial aviation, embracing the most modern thought on the subject, was signed at the Sixth International Conference of American States at Havana in 1928, and since that time a number of governments have ratified the convention. In addition, at the sessions of the Pan American Commission on Customs Procedure and Port Formalities at Washington in 1929, the subject of regulations at airports received serious consideration, and a series of important proposals were adopted, which endeavors are being made to have the various governments incorporate into effective legislative measures.

Broken Hearts at One Dollar Per Fracture

San Francisco Chronicle

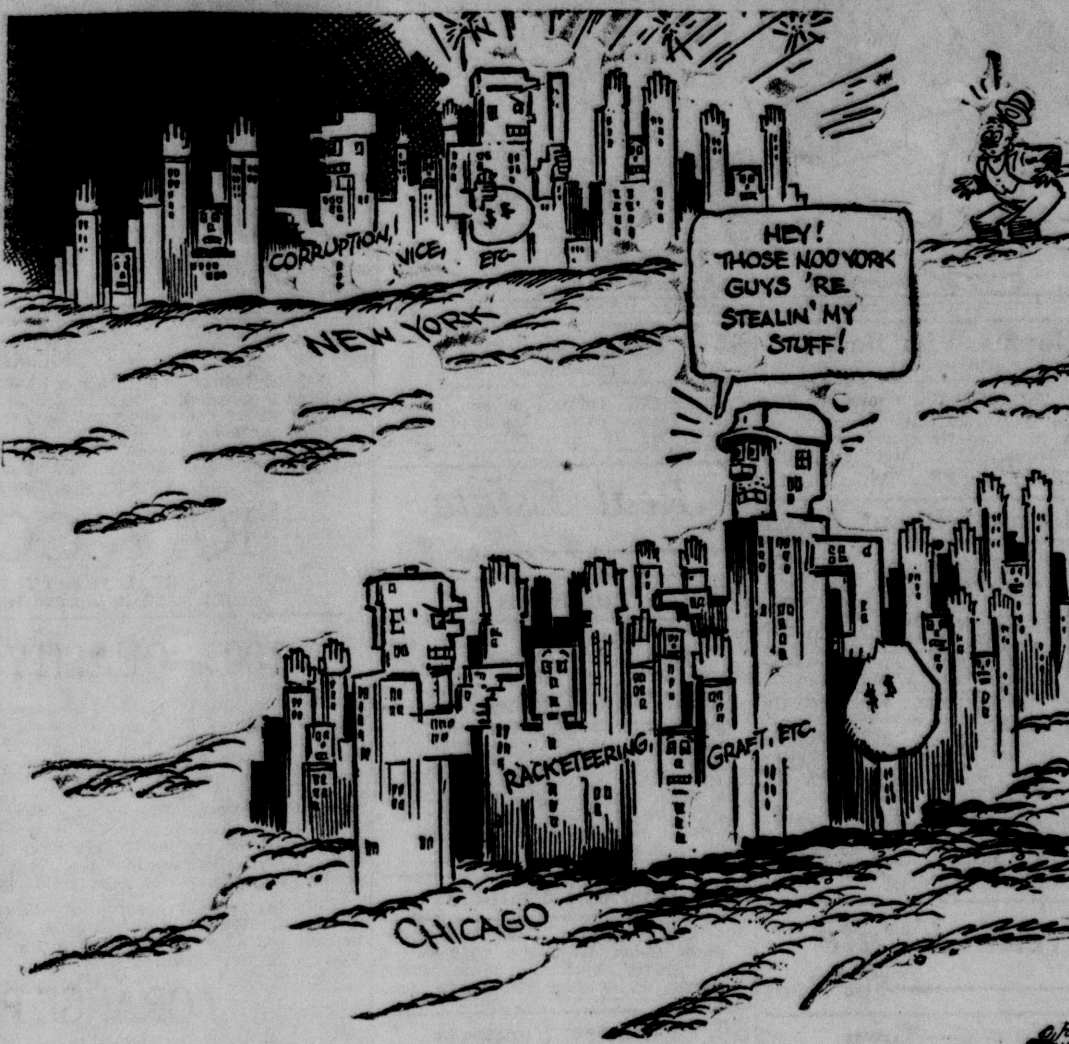

Only a dollar for a broken heart! Of course, it was a mere man's. Juries are far more generous to the ladies. Then it does not have to be a really broken heart. Just a dent or a chip off the corner is worth $25,000 at the least. And that is all that Joseph W. Payne asked in his suit against Mrs. Maude Meredith. Mr. Payne said he had given the widow Meredith a couple of rings, an automobile and at least one hundred boxes of candy, yet she broke her engagement to him. All of which the jury assessed at One Iron Man.

But just suppose it had been the other way around—that the widow had given Mr. Payne the rings and the automobile and then he had run out.
Ouch! What the jury would do to him.

Or even consider the case when the man gives the presents—say a couple of solitaires as big as cakes of ice and maybe a sable cloak and a pearl necklace thrown in for good luck. And then if the girl goes crying to the jury, what does the jury do? Why, the jury says that after all this girl is at least entitled to expect something, so they give her all the reluctant gentleman has, plus costs and attorney fees.

Only a dollar for a broken heart! Even beef hearts come higher.

More Truth Than Poetry

THE RULES OF THE GAME

A wearying bout with a large husky trout
I am told is a joy and delight—
A trout one must play for full half of the day
In a bitter continuous fight.

His sides are a-gleam as he leaps from the stream
In a shower of silvery spray;
And one has to admire his courage and fire
When, freed, he goes darting away.

Such enjoyment, I'm told, is not easy to match,
But I rather would fish for a trout I can catch.

To shoot at a bear as he lies in his lair
Is the act of a cowardly soul.
Meet the brute face to face with leisurely pace
Through a glade in the forest you stroll.

If your shot goes awry, and he growls in reply,
End the fight, if you lose in the row that ensues,
And though you may lose in the row that ensues,
He has had a fair chance for his life.

But as for myself, any time, anywhere,
I'd avoid any sort of dispute with a bear.

True sportsmen, in battles with beasts or with men,
Must follow the rules of the game;
In the gruelling strife which composes this life
Give the foe any odds he may claim.

In the possible case that he's brutal and base
And cruel and savage as Nero,
If you're kind and polite, though you lose in the fight,
You will know you have lost like a hero.

Although most of the people who mix in the fray
Behave, I believe, in a different way.

THE DIFFERENCE

We are using the same bricks that were used in the walls of Jericho, says a newspaper paragraph. But we are paying a lot more for them per thousand.

THE BEST INTENTIONS

We are probably withdrawing our troops from Nicaragua so she might enjoy the right of self termination.

MOUNTAIN AND MOHAMET

Decency is said to be returning to the stage. That is probably because the stage would not return to decency.

AND IN CONFIDENCE

If General Butler has anything more to say about European dictators he will probably tell it to the Marines.

NATURAL MISTAKE

It is now said that opera is not dying. So we were wrong about the nature of the shrieks we heard the last time we attended it.

Unprofitable Servants

By WILLIAM TRUFANT FOSTER and WADDILL CATCHINGS

The servant who received the one talent of money was afraid. He tried to play safe. He dugged in the earth, and buried the money.

Months ago, when the business outlook began to darken, many men who are supposed to be servants of society buried the talents which society had entrusted to them. They did not dig a hole in the ground, and deposit their dollars in the hole. But they did what amounts to the same thing, as far as business is concerned. They put their dollars in the banks, as time deposits, and left them there.

During the first nine months of last year, merchants lost their markets and men lost their jobs, mainly because there was not enough money in circulation. During the same nine months, 712 millions of dollars were added to time deposits, and thus, in effect, removed from circulation.

Throughout the past year, time deposits were in excess of 13 billions. This means that the money which was needed to put men to work was available, but was not used. Too much of it was in the trembling hands of unprofitable servants.

The reason we had any business at all is because we had some good and faithful servants. These are the five-talent men and the ten-talent men of the parable. They were not afraid.
They put their money to work. They created wealth.

They have been faithful over a few things; they will become rulers over many things. That will benefit all of us.

To him that hath money, and uses it to employ men and increase the nation's wealth, should be given more money. Money in abundance.

But the unprofitable servants should be cast into outer darkness. Or into any other place where they can weep and gnash their teeth by themselves, and not block the road to better business.

Today was my birthday, and we was eating breakfast and ma sed to pop. What do you want for supper tonight, Wilyum?

Liver and onions, pop sed.
Being his favorite thing, and ma
sed, I mite of known you'd say that, my goodness we just had liver and onions it duzzent seem any time ago.

It seems ages ago to me, I think it was shortly after we were married, pop sed. But why not let Benny choose the menu tonight, this is his birthday and he's suppose to be king for a day, he sed.

Thats rite, thats a very good ideer, ma sed. What do you want to eat for supper, Benny? she sed.

G, wait till I think, I sed, and pop sed, Thats rite, thats a mind over all the worlds most tempting dishes, and then if you choose liver and onions you will be starting your birthday with a good deed.

Why William how perfectly redicoliss, ma sed. You know he only has 2 favorite dishes and they are chicken stew with dump-plings and sowerkurt with sau-sidges, she sed, and pop sed.

Quite true, so if he chose liver and onions it would be in the nature of a sacrifice, and what is nobler or more bewtiful than sacrifice in the young? Think it over carefully, Benny, he sed.

Wich I did, saying, Well, I gess
I think ill have sauerkurt with sausidges and liver and onions.

He's not only a martyr, but a Napoleon, pop sed, and ma sed.

O yes, in other words it would be everybodys birthday but mine, because Nora is off today and I doint you choose going out to a restaurant, Benny, you know you love restaurants, she sed.

G, berry, thats rite, a restaurant, lets go to a restaurant, I sed.

Wich we did, and ma dident haff to clear up any dishes, and pop had liver and onions anyways, and I changed my mind 4 times and finely had hamburger stakes, being one of the best things you can order in a restaurant, and taist and one of the worst things for knowing whats in them.

A Day Nursery St. Patrick's

cluded arrangements for leasing about 60 acres of their rock bot-

The accident Sunday which re-that the county, too is practically without such a service.

Thoughts On Modern Life

By GLENN FRANK

LEARNERS AND LOAFERS

This week I am discussing things that a state has the right to expect from its university.

Day before yesterday I spoke of the right of the state to expect its university to be flexible rather than fixed in its program and procedures.

Yesterday I spoke of the right of the state to expect that its university shall treat its students as individuals rather than as mere parts of a crowd subjected to mechanical instruction.

Today I want to speak of the right of the state to expect that its university shall give the best possible liberal education to every son or daughter of the state who is willing to pay the price of hard work in return for the educational opportunity the state has provided and at the same time to see to it that every loafer is lifted from the backs of the taxpayers.

This is no easy job when state universities, supported by all the taxpayers, are expected to put their facilities at the disposal of all the children of all the taxpayers.

Beyond entrance requirements, equivalent to graduation from an accredited high school, state universities have felt hesitant about going very far in saying who shall and who shall not attend.

At Wisconsin we have recently adopted a new policy that promises to make headway towards reserving the university for the learners and ridding it of the loafers.

Upon the basis of actual achievement, variously determined, the students are divided, by the time they reach the end of the sophomore year, into three groups.

The first group is admitted, on its record, into the junior year without question.

The second group is required,
on its record, to apply for admission to the junior year. Every case in this second group is scrutinized in careful review of the record, and if admitted, as many if not most of this second group may be, is admitted on certain contingent arrangements and with certain advice and direction.

The third group is not permitted to enter the junior year, since the record shows either an unwillingness to do more than merely get by or a clear ineptitude for college training.

All of the students of all three groups will, however, be students who have passed their work. The third group is not a group of flunkers. The flunkers would be admitted anyway. This new process has to do with the quality of work and the devotion displayed by the student.

And all students who pass their work for two years will be given the new degree of Junior Graduate in Liberal Studies.

We hope by this to lift the quality of the student body greatly, and to make, the mere fact of being in the junior and senior classes itself a sign of distinction.

We give every high school graduate a chance at the educational facilities of the university for two years, but we reserve the facilities for four years for only those students who play fair with the taxpayers.

OUR CHILDREN

By ANGELO PATRI
PROBLEM CHILDREN

There is much about children that we do not understand. Because we do not understand we blunder along in the dark, occasionally coming upon the right thing, often the wrong thing.

Children are an expression of the vast mystery we call life and until we can get a better vision of what life is and what it means, we will be forced to struggle blindly with the problem children.

It is not enough to say that a child is a problem; to label him as slow, gifted, degenerate, genius, bad, or good. We must know whereof we speak and understand the cause and the remedy, before we get anywhere with the difficulty.

I am certain of one thing, perhaps two, as they may be separate though closely related: No child wants to be a failure. No parent wants his child to fail.

The failing child is pained and bewildered. So are his parents. We must study to find the cause of the child's difficulty, remove it if possible, explain the situation to the parents, and go on from there with courage and faith in the service of the child.

When the teacher says, "Son is lazy," "Daughter is inattentive,"
"Your child is suffering from a complex," has anything of importance been done? I do not think so. I want to know WHY the boy seems lazy, why the child is inattentive, what is meant by a complex. Words do not help unless they indicate a way out. Now what is the way out for the lazy child, the inattentive child, the child whose mind is pre-occupied with some interest other than the necessary one?

First, study the child in his home, in the playground, in the classroom and in doing so, study every other person who touches his life in any way. You may find the answer in the people who surround the child, in his companions, in his actions. Actions are the clearest of all languages.

A child does what his thought sets. What he thinks, that he does in spite of all the protestations to the contrary.

And how shall we get him to think right? I wish I knew. All thinking is based upon experiences and the kind and quality of the interpretation of experiences depends upon something that is a mystery to me. One child will interpret an experience to his good while another will misinterpret it woefully. We have to keep exposing the child to experiences, the more varied the better, until we find a line that his mind willingly follows. We catch that and work from that toward the others he believes he needs. In that lies the science of education and it is not to be caught in the twinkling of an eye.

Skilled physicians in the children's clinics can help a great deal. Thoroughly trained teachers are of the utmost importance because of the tremendous influence they have upon the thinking of their pupils. Interested intelligent parents are of first importance in the lives of the children. Children are the shadows of their ancestors and parents are the closest, the most influential.

Give the problem child his chance. Reserve decision. Hope for him and search the world for an interpretation for him. There is a way if only we can find it.
That is the challenge life offers the searcher, the teacher.
